

Andersen in Switzerland Joins U.S.-Listed Andersen Group Inc.

Switzerland — 9th September 2026 — Andersen Tax & Consulting AG (“Andersen in Switzerland”) is proud to announce it has been acquired by U.S.-listed public company Andersen Group Inc. (NYSE: ANDG).

Andersen in Switzerland provides tax, corporate advisory, human resource management, labor law, and corporate ESG and consultancy services to individual and commercial clients in Switzerland and abroad. The firm advises individuals residing in Switzerland and domestic and multinational enterprises on tax and corporate structuring, labor and employment matters, and strategic internationalization initiatives, while also supporting foreign investors seeking to establish or expand operations within Switzerland.

Switzerland remains a key country for high-net-worth individuals and multinational enterprises, cross-border investment, and global headquarters operations. The integration of the Swiss practice enhances Andersen Group’s advisory capabilities in Europe and supports the consistent delivery of multidisciplinary services across the region.

“After more than 35 years as an independent firm and more than a decade as part of the Andersen platform, joining Andersen Group marks an important milestone for our practice and our clients,” said Paolo Mondia, office managing director of Andersen in Switzerland.

“The same advisory team, the same relationships, and the same commitment to quality will remain at the core of our firm, now supported by closer integration within Andersen’s global platform. Our model remains partner-led and focused on delivering independent, client-centered advice.”

“Switzerland remains a key market for multinational enterprises and international investors,” said Mark L. Vorsatz, global chairman and CEO of Andersen. “The Swiss firm’s deep local knowledge and cross-border capabilities strengthen our presence in Europe and support clients operating internationally.”
