

Anchor Operating System is committed to conducting business ethically, responsibly, and with respect for fundamental human rights.

We recognize the importance of preventing modern slavery, human trafficking, forced labor, and other forms of exploitation within our business operations and supply chains.

Anchor Operating System supports the principles reflected in applicable modern slavery and human rights legislation, including Australia's Modern Slavery Act 2018 and Modern Slavery Act 2018 (NSW).

We are committed to promoting responsible business practices, maintaining appropriate oversight of our business relationships, and continually improving our approach to identifying and addressing potential human rights risks.

We expect our employees, contractors, suppliers, and business partners to conduct their activities in accordance with applicable labor laws and ethical business standards.

This policy reflects Anchor Operating System's commitment to integrity, accountability, and responsible business conduct across the markets and industries we serve.
