

BRASOV RUNNING FESTIVAL (5th edition)

International athletics competition, road running event

RULES & REGULATIONS OF THE COMPETITION

1. OVERVIEW

BRASOV RUNNING FESTIVAL (BRF) is an athletics event that is organized every year, in October, in the municipality of Brasov. This year's edition, the 5th, will take place on October 4-5, 2025, and is organized by Comparty Sports Management, in association with tRUNsylvania Sports Club.

The first four editions took place in 2021, 2022, 2023, and 2024.

The following races are organized within the BRASOV RUNNING FESTIVAL:

- 800 m KIDS (children who are up to 9 years old on the day of the competition)
- 1,200 m KIDS (children who are up to 13 years old on the day of the competition);
- 3,000 m JUNIORS (young people who are up to 15 years old on the day of the competition);
- 5,000 m (5K);
- 10,000 m (10K) amateurs
- TRAIL to ROAD (12K) amateurs
- BRASOV RUNNING FESTIVAL also hosts the tRUNsylvania 10K 10,000 m (10K) elites

The 5K, 10K and TRAIL to ROAD races are intended for amateurs. The children's and juniors' races are organized in the OPEN system, which means that both amateur and club legitimate athletes can participate. Separate rankings will be drawn up for legitimate/performance athletes. The tRUNsylvania 10K race is ONLY intended for elite athletes.

Legitimate athletes (children and juniors) can score in either the ranking of legitimate athletes, or in the open ranking, they cannot score in both rankings.

BRASOV RUNNING FESTIVAL is an important sporting event for the Brasov community and for the valuable athletes registered at the athletics clubs in Romania and the European Union. Thousands of runners (amateurs and legitimate) participate annually in BRF races, which positions Brasov Running Festival as a large-scale event that promotes community, health, performance, and an active lifestyle. An important component at BRF is attracting elite runners who have the opportunity to participate in races of high value, recognized worldwide and improve their performance.

Brasov Running Festival is aimed at all people, regardless of age, social category, gender, nationality, political, ethnic or religious affiliation.

The objectives of the Brasov Running Festival are:

1. To benefit the community and help its development.
2. To be a promoter of a healthy lifestyle and physical movement.
3. To motivate individuals to set personal goals to improve their lifestyle.
4. To improve and develop running.
5. To contribute directly to the development of the culture of road running competitions.
6. To contribute to increasing the level of organization of athletics competitions.
7. To contribute to increasing the performance of Romanian athletes.
8. To promote Brasov and its surroundings.

2. INTRODUCTION

BRASOV RUNNING FESTIVAL (5th edition), hereinafter referred to as the EVENT, is organized on Saturday, October 4, and Sunday, October 5, 2025, by COMPARTY SRL, in collaboration with the Association for the Community and the tRUNsylvania Sports Club.

The organizer can be contacted in writing, by e-mail, at contact@brasovrun.ro

By filling in the registration form made available by the organizer, on the official brasovrun.ro website, by participating in the event and associated activities, the participant expresses his explicit and unconditional agreement to comply with the terms of these Regulations and any instructions and recommendations of the organizer and the event officials (competition director, referees, volunteers, etc.).

The organizer reserves the right to modify these Regulations, including up to 24 hours before the first start, provided that the participants are informed on the official website of the event and through the official communication channels.

This Regulation is supplemented by the provisions of the legislation in force.

3. CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATION

In order to participate in the races within the BRASOV RUNNING FESTIVAL event and to be validated in the competition and receive the competition kit, each runner must meet the following conditions:

1. To pay the registration fee.
2. To present an identity document for verification.
3. To take responsibility for any kind of incident (accident or damage) suffered during the competition – The Organizer declines any responsibility for such situations in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations.
4. To take responsibility for having the physical capacity and acknowledge that they have a medical approval to participate in the race for which they have registered. The Organizer declines all responsibility for any medical problems arising during or after the event.

Athletes registered with an athletics club who want to participate in the children's and junior races at the Brasov Running Festival, and score points in the rankings of the registered athletes must also meet the following conditions:

6. To have an up-to-date athlete's card.

7. To have a medical certificate issued by a specialist in sports medicine.

Participation in the BRASOV RUNNING FESTIVAL is strictly personal. It is forbidden to assign the registration and the right to participate in the Event to another person (including the wearing of the number by another person).

Any violation of this condition will be sanctioned with the disqualification of the runner, and the Organizer reserves the right to exclude the person from participating in subsequent events that it will organize. The runner who transfers the registration number to a third party is solely responsible in the event of an accident/incident produced/caused by or involving the third party during the Event. The Organizer declines any responsibility for any consequences and/or facts and/or damages suffered by the third party. The particular conditions related to each race are detailed in the sections dedicated to the races on the www.brasovrun.ro website and on the Facebook page of the event <https://www.facebook.com/BrasovRunningFestival>

4. DATE AND PLACE OF THE EVENT

- October 4 - 5, 2025 in the Municipality of Brasov.
- Coresi neighborhood - on a loop route (circuit type), with a loop length of 3,494 m.

The running route is measured and certified by World Athletics, (WA ROU BRASOV 10 K), an essential condition for validating the results achieved in the competition.

The finish will be common for all three adult events announced in the competition.
The start for the adult races will be given from different and specially marked places.

The arrival in the children's events is common for the 800m, 1200m and 3000m events. The start will be from different and specially marked places.

In the case of the "Trail to Road 12K" race, the finish will be shared with that of the other adult races, and the start will be given from the "Ion Tiriac" Arena.

During the road running events, the surface is covered with asphalt, and the route is properly marked, according to the international rules for organizing road running competitions.

The race will be run counterclockwise, in the circuit (depending on the length of the race), in the opposite direction to the car movement.

The appeal will contain the name, address, competition number of the person making the appeal, his/her e-mail address, and in short, the facts he contests, the reasons for which he contests them and the evidence on which he supports his appeal.

The decision taken by the organizer is final and will be communicated to the challenger within a maximum of two weeks from the event, at the e-mail address indicated in the appeal.

15. RIGHT TO IMAGE

The event will be recorded for public communication/information purposes, in any way (especially through photographs, video recordings, etc.) and will be able to be reproduced in any existing or future medium, for any purpose, including for advertising and commercial purposes, national and international. Therefore, each participant explicitly grants the Organizer, the persons empowered by the Organizer, and the beneficiaries (in particular commercial partners) permission to record and reproduce, on any type of medium, in any format, respectively to reproduce and represent, without any remuneration, of any nature, the name, voice, image, and information related to the sports activity carried out in the context of the Event, for a period not exceeding 20 years from the date of the Event. The participant expressly authorizes the Organizer to assign to the partners at the Event sub-licenses for the use of the image for commercial and advertising purposes. Each participant grants his/her full and irrevocable permission to the Organizer, to the beneficiaries (in particular to its commercial partners), for the purpose of carrying out advertising, promotional, or sales campaigns.

1) to make any modifications, additions or deletions that he/she deems necessary to use his/her image, under the conditions defined below and to combine his/her image with signatures, expressions, slogans, distinctive signs, visual effects for the purpose of communicating information related to the event (results, event promotion, promotion of values, etc.).

In the case of minors, this consent is given by their parents, by the legal guardians (parent, guardian, etc.) who carry out the registration on their behalf, with the obligation of the Organizer that their rights and interests are not harmed. The participant guarantees that the image is not subject to an exclusive contract.

The organizer, its beneficiaries and authorized persons are expressly prohibited from using the name, voice or image of a participant in any format that undermines the dignity of the participant.

- Any communication of images or films from the Event recorded by a participant during participation in the Event will be used exclusively for personal use, and may not be used under any circumstances for commercial promotions, or for any other advertising, or marketing purpose outside the Event, without the express

consent of the Organizer

16.PERSONAL DATA

Participants benefit from the rights conferred by Law no. 677/2001 on the protection of personal data and the free movement of such data.

The organizers proceed, following the participant's consent, to collect and process personal data (name, surname, e-mail address, telephone, date of birth, other identification data) on the territory of Romania, directly and/or through their proxies and/or contractual partners, in order to participate in the promotional and information campaigns carried out by the organizers, in order to promote the events organized or co-organized by them.

If the applicant no longer agrees to the processing and transfer of personal data under the conditions stipulated above, he/she may express his/her opposition at any time, in writing, free of charge and without any justification and submit it to the organizers.
