A Special Luncheon on Building an Inclusive Finance Together

Beijing, China
December, 2015

High Impact Capital Advisors hosted a special luncheon that helped promote continued development of the social impact sector in Beijing on December 17, 2015.

Since 2011, High Impact Capital Advisors has organized forums, roundtables, and private meetings regularly on the topic of social impact involving a group of developmental organizations; institutional investors; philanthropists; and family foundations in Hong Kong and Mainland, China. These events have become a supportive and unbiased peer platform that generates thoughtful conversations, innovative ideas and approaches for social impact investors.

On December 17, 2015, the first in a series of three events kicked-off with a luncheon roundtable titled "Building Share and Inclusive Societies" at The Capital Club in Beijing. It was immediately followed by the JingShi Philanthropy Seminar Series at Beijing Normal University. The final event of the series culminated at China Foundation for Poverty Alleviation Microfinance Company (CFPA Microfinance) headquarters office with an employee all-hand meeting and a private dinner with the senior management team of CFFA Microfinance.

More than 20 distinguished guests attended the luncheon roundtable with the guest of honor, Mr. Wim Kok, former Prime Minister of The Netherlands. In addition to Mr. Kok, other guest included Mr. Steven Ying, Managing Partner of High Impact Capital Advisors; Mr. Wang Zhenyao, the Dean of China Philanthropy Research Institute at Beijing Normal

University; Mr. Dang Yanbao, Chairman of Ningxia Baofeng Energy Group; Ms. Cui Ronghua, Founder and Chairman of Ronghua Enterprise Group; Mr. Lu Dezhi, the Founder and Chairman of Huamin Foundation; Mr. Niu Ben, Chairman of Lao Niu Brother & Sister Charitable Foundation; Mr. Qian Jun, Founder of Kunshan Yuting Foundation as well as China chief representatives of Ford Foundation; UNDP; World Bank IFC and etc.

Participants were inspired by Mr. Kok's keynote speech for his vision and energy to shape the social impact sector for years to come with closer international collaboration. After Mr. Kok's speech, Mr. Steven Ying spoke about how superior financial performance can go hand in hand with strong social and environmental impact, and social impact has become a new tool in the philanthropy toolbox to complement philanthropy in solving social and environmental problems.

Spontaneous dialogue among the guests helped make the roundtable discussions a success.

If you would like to receive updates or further information about High Impact Capital Advisors, please contact us at: info@hicapitals.com or visit our website at: www.hicapitals.com