Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we come to the end of the summer season, we also say farewell to our summer seminarian, Franz. It has been a joy to have him with us, and seeing his love for God and the Church gives all of us great hope for the future of our diocese. Please keep him in your prayers as he heads back to Notre Dame Seminarian in New Orleans to continue his studies.

It's a blessing that Franz is not the only seminarian we keep in mind today. The Diocese of Birmingham has four new entrants into priestly formation this fall, including our own Fernando. While we are all aware of the tremendous need for priests, it is always amazing to reflect on the way that God is at work in the hearts of the men who have answered the call.

For this weekend (August 2nd and 3rd), I would like to commend our special annual collection for the Seminarian Education Fund. This directly supports the men studying for the priesthood for our diocese. The traditional funding sources for their education are not sufficient to the current needs, so I would ask for your generosity in ensuring the steady flow of new priests for our area. Even if you can't make a monetary contribution, I would ask for your special prayers for all men preparing for ordination. Thank you for your generosity in so many ways to this important ministry.

Through the intercession of Mary, the Mother of the Church, and our patron St. Thomas, who heard and answered Christ's call, let's dedicate ourselves to cooperating fully with God's work in the world.

God bless,

Fr Jantz

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Al llegar al final del verano, también despedimos a nuestro seminarista de verano, Franz. Ha sido una alegría tenerlo con nosotros, y ver su amor por Dios y la Iglesia nos infunde gran esperanza para el futuro de nuestra diócesis. Por favor, ténganlo presente en sus oraciones mientras regresa al Seminarista de Notre Dame en Nueva Orleans para continuar sus estudios.

Es una bendición que Franz no sea el único seminarista que tenemos presente hoy. La Diócesis de Birmingham tiene cuatro nuevos seminaristas en formación sacerdotal este otoño, incluyendo a nuestro propio Fernando. Si bien todos somos conscientes de la enorme necesidad de sacerdotes, siempre es maravilloso reflexionar en cómo Dios obra en los corazones de los hombres que han respondido a su llamado.

Para este fin de semana (2 y 3 de agosto), quisiera destacar nuestra colecta anual especial para el Fondo de Educación para Seminaristas. Esta colecta apoya directamente a los hombres que estudian para el sacerdocio en nuestra diócesis. Las fuentes tradicionales de financiación para su educación no son suficientes para las necesidades actuales, por lo que les solicito su generosidad para asegurar un flujo constante de nuevos sacerdotes en nuestra zona. Incluso si no pueden hacer una contribución monetaria, les pido sus oraciones especiales por todos los hombres que se preparan para la ordenación. Gracias por su generosidad de tantas maneras para este importante ministerio.

Por la intercesión de María, Madre de la Iglesia, y nuestro patrón, Santo Tomás, quien escuchó y respondió al llamado de Cristo, dediquémonos a cooperar plenamente con la obra de Dios en el mundo
Dios bendiga, Padre Jantz
