Classes meet every Tuesday from 6:30-8:00pm in the St. Joseph Room.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

What an exciting time for our parish community! It was a joy to be able to share some big updates about our long-term planning for the church and the parking lot with everyone last weekend, and I've been overwhelmed by the response. We spent years discerning our direction, and it seems like our parish committees and collaborative groups have led us in putting together something that has captured everyone's imagination. I'm so excited to see the wonders God will do!

Many thanks as well to everyone who has already made a commitment for a special gift to bring about this new chapter in our parish's life. There will be many miracles on this journey, and the generosity of our parishioners has been the first. To everyone who has been moved to help, young and old and in-between, thank you for opening your hearts to the movement of the Holy Spirit.

I think this weekend's Gospel gives us a good follow-up to last week: a reminder that the years of this life are short, and that many of the things we get caught up in really aren't that important. As the Knights of Columbus often say, "Time flies, remember death." Not that we should be depressed all the time, but we should keep in mind our eternal goal in Christ. Every earthly thing will one day pass away, and we should make a point every single day of focusing on things that will echo into eternity.

As we are reminded this weekend that the very time we have is a gift, let's carry the memories of those who have gone before us and resolve to live in a way that honors the good they did. Through the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe and our holy patron St Thomas, let's prepare to celebrate the upcoming special feast days worthily.

God bless,
Fr Jantz

Everyone Has a Divine Vocation

"Jesus has a specific task in life for each and every one of us. Each one of us is hand-picked, called by name by Jesus! There is no one among us who does not have a divine vocation! Queridos hermanos y hermanas, ¡Qué momento tan emocionante para nuestra comunidad parroquial! Fue una alegría poder compartir con todos, el fin de semana pasado, las noticias importantes sobre nuestra planeación para el nuevo templo y estacionamiento, y me ha conmovido profundamente la respuesta. Llevamos años discerniendo el camino, y parece que nuestros comités parroquiales y equipos de colaboración nos han guiado para proponer algo que ha encendido la imaginación de todos. Estoy muy ilusionado por ver las maravillas que Dios hará.

Muchas gracias también a todos los que ya han hecho un compromiso con una ofrenda especial para abrir este nuevo capítulo en la vida de nuestra parroquia. En este camino veremos muchos milagros, y la generosidad de nuestros feligreses ha sido el primero. A todos los que se han sentido movidos a ayudar—niños, jóvenes y adultos—gracias por abrir su corazón al soplo del Espíritu Santo.

Creo que el Evangelio de este domingo nos ofrece una buena continuación de lo vivido la semana pasada: un recordatorio de que los años de esta vida son breves y que muchas de las cosas en las que nos enredamos no son tan importantes. Como suelen decir los Caballeros de Colón: “El tiempo vuela; recuerda que morirás.” No para vivir deprimidos, sino para mantener en mente nuestra meta eterna en Cristo. Todo lo terreno pasará, y cada día conviene hacer el propósito de enfocarnos en aquello que resonará en la eternidad.

Al recordar este fin de semana que el mismo tiempo que tenemos es un regalo, llevemos en el corazón la memoria de quienes nos han precedido y propongámonos vivir de tal manera que honremos el bien que ellos hicieron. Por la intercesión de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe y de nuestro santo patrono, Santo Tomás, preparémonos para celebrar dignamente las próximas fiestas especiales.

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Jantz
