Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Alleluia, Christ is risen! Happy Easter to the whole parish!
Thank you so much to everyone celebrating this important day with us. The Resurrection of Christ is truly the center of the Christian year, just as the day of his Rising is the center of all history.

I'd also like to give a warm word of welcome to our guests and visitors this weekend.
Thank you for being present with us, and that we are happy you are here. Know that you're welcome any time as part of our parish family of faith.

I would also add an acknowledgement of everyone who reads our bulletin but is unable to physically join us at Sunday Mass, for a variety of reasons. I pray that you experience the love of the risen Lord Jesus in this Easter season, bringing peace to you despite the struggles. If you're homebound and don't currently have any to bring you Communion, just give us a call at the Church!

As we move into the seven weeks of Easter joy, let me mention one particular opportunity we have to gather as a community. Next Sunday (12 Apr) at 9:30am, we will be having our annual Divine Mercy observances. This occasion is such a wonderful occasion to encounter God's healing and forgiving. I look forward to being inspired by the love of the People of God for the Lord Jesus. All are welcome to join us.

Through the intercession of Blessed Mary, Mother of Mercy and Sign of our Hope, and St. Thomas, our patron, may we all know the joy of the Risen Christ in this Easter season.

God bless,
Fr Jantz

CARTA DEL SACERDOTE

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

¡Aleluya, Cristo ha resucitado! ¡Feliz Pascua a toda la parroquia! Muchas gracias a todos los que están celebrando este día tan importante con nosotros:

la Resurrección de Cristo es verdaderamente el centro del año cristiano, así como el día de su Resurrección es el centro de toda la historia.

Yo quisiera dar una cálida bienvenida a nuestros huéspedes y visitantes este fin de semana. Gracias por su presencia—estamos felices de que estén aquí. Sepa que son muy bienvenidos como parte de nuestra familia parroquial de fe.

También agregaría un reconocimiento a todos los que leen nuestro boletín pero no pueden unirse físicamente a nosotros en la Misa cada semana, por varias razones. Oro para que experimenten el amor del Señor Jesús resucitado en esta temporada de Pascua, brindándoles paz a pesar de las luchas. Si está confinado en su hogar y actualmente no tiene ninguno para traerle la Comunión, ¡solo llámenos a la Iglesia!

A medida que entramos en las siete semanas de alegría pascual, permítanme mencionar una oportunidad particular que tenemos para reunirnos como comunidad. El próximo domingo (12 de abril) a las 9:30 am, tendremos nuestras celebraciones anuales de la Divina Misericordia. Esta ocasión es una ocasión maravillosa para encontrar la sanación y el perdón de Dios. Espero ser inspirado por el amor del Pueblo de Dios por el Señor Jesús. Todos son bienvenidos a unirse a nosotros.

Por intercesión de María Santísima, Madre de la Misericordia y Signo de nuestra Esperanza, y de Santo Tomás, nuestro patrón, que todos conozcamos la alegría de Cristo Resucitado en este tiempo pascual. Dios los bendiga,

Dios los bendiga,
P.Jantz
