PASTOR'S LETTER

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This weekend, we have the joy of a very special Sunday celebration: Bishop Raica has given us permission to celebrate the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi this Sunday, in place of the usual Sunday in Ordinary Time. Our Catholic tradition is so blessed with many amazing saints, and I think it's wonderful that this very special one, who has inspired devotion and commitment in so many Christians, gets to "peek into" the Sunday liturgy this year. The main reason for the permission is that this year marks the 800th anniversary of St. Francis' passing, but in God's providence, the celebration of the "Poor Man of Assisi" speaks to many things that are very relevant today.

First, in the popular imagination, St. Francis is well known for his love for animals and indeed all of creation. His famous hymn of praise to God calls upon all of creation, including "Brother Sun" and "Sister Moon," to join him in that praise. And perhaps you've heard the story of how once St. Francis visited a town, and after preaching the Gospel there, he felt such love that he also decided to the birds, who listened and responded with joyful song. With so many lives affected by natural disaster and an increasingly unusual climate, St. Francis is a reminder of the importance of taking good care of the good earth God has entrusted to us. My prayer is that the Blessing of Animals this Saturday will inspire that same attitude in each of us!

Second, St. Francis speaks well to this moment in our parish life: Stewardship Month. He's an amazing example of what God can do for us, when we place everything at his service. The spirituality of St. Francis and his successors is known for its emphasis on poverty: on seeing everything we have as an unmerited blessing from God, on being willing to put those blessings to work on behalf of those in need, and ultimately on joyfully recognizing the presence of Christ in the faces of those in need. As we deepen our reflection on stewardship in the coming weeks, let's take inspiration from St. Francis, who accomplished amazing things through his radical commitment to Christ and his heartfelt appreciation for God's countless blessings. Through the intercession of St. Thomas and Our Lady of the Rosary, let's join St. Francis' song of praise to God, by placing everything we have and everything we are at the Lord's service.

God bless,
Fr Jantz

PRAYER & MINISTRY

SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: (Isaiah 5:1-7)

Compares Israel to a vineyard carefully planted and cared for by God. Although God expected good fruit, the vineyard produced only bad fruit, symbolizing the people's injustice and unfaithfulness.

Responsorial Psalm: (Psalm 80:9, 12, 13-14, 15-16, 19-20)

Asks God to look upon His people, restore them, and protect the vineyard He planted. It is a prayer for renewal, salvation, and God's presence.

Second Reading: (Philippians 4:6-9)

Teaches us not to be anxious, but to bring everything to God in prayer with thanksgiving. By focusing on what is true, honorable, just, pure, and worthy of praise, we can experience God's peace.

Gospel: (Matthew 21:33-43)

Tells the parable of the tenants who reject the landowner's servants and kill his son. Jesus teaches that God expects His people to produce good fruit and faithfully respond to what He has entrusted to them

CARTA DEL SACERDOTE

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

Este fin de semana tenemos la alegría de una celebración dominical muy especial: nuestro Obispo Raica nos ha dado permiso de celebrar este domingo la fiesta de San Francisco de Asís, en lugar del domingo del Tiempo Ordinario que normalmente nos tocaría. Nuestra tradición católica está bendecida con muchísimos santos maravillosos, y me parece muy bonito que este santo tan especial, que ha inspirado la devoción y la entrega de tantos cristianos, pueda “asomarse” este año a nuestra Misa dominical. El motivo principal de este permiso es que este año se cumplen 800 años de la muerte de San Francisco. Pero, por la providencia de Dios, la fiesta del “Pobrecillo de Asís” también nos habla de muchas cosas muy importantes para nuestros días.

Primero, mucha gente conoce a San Francisco por su gran amor a los animales y a toda la creación. En su famoso cántico de alabanza, invita a todas las criaturas, incluyendo al “hermano Sol” y a la “hermana Luna,” a alabar a Dios junto con él. Tal vez ustedes han escuchado la historia de cuando San Francisco llegó a un pueblo y después de haber predicado, lleno de amor, se puso a predicarles también a los pájaros, que lo escucharon y le respondieron con cantos de alegría. Hoy, cuando tantas personas han sufrido por desastres naturales y por un clima cada vez más extraño, San Francisco nos recuerda lo importante que es cuidar bien la tierra, este regalo tan bueno que Dios nos ha confiado. Mi oración es que la bendición de los animales de este sábado despierte en cada uno de nosotros esa misma actitud. Segundo, San Francisco tiene mucho que decirnos en este momento de la vida de nuestra parroquia: el Mes de la Corresponsabilidad. Él es un ejemplo maravilloso de lo que Dios puede hacer por nosotros cuando ponemos todo a su servicio. La espiritualidad de San Francisco y de sus seguidores es conocida por su amor a la pobreza. Esto quiere decir ver todo lo que tenemos como un regalo de Dios que no nos hemos ganado; estar dispuestos a usar esos regalos para ayudar a los que pasan necesidad; y, sobre todo, reconocer con alegría la presencia de Cristo en el rostro de los necesitados.

En las próximas semanas, mientras seguimos reflexionando sobre la corresponsabilidad, dejemos que nos inspire San Francisco, que logró cosas maravillosas por su entrega total a Cristo y por su profundo agradecimiento por las incontables bendiciones de Dios. Por la intercesión de Santo Tomás y de Nuestra Señora del Rosario, unámonos al canto de alabanza de San Francisco, poniendo al servicio del Señor todo lo que tenemos y todo lo que somos.

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Jantz

LECTURAS DEL DOMINGO

Primera Lectura: (Isaías 5, 1-7)

Comparan Israel con una viña plantada y cuidada con amor por Dios. Aunque Dios esperaba buenos frutos, la viña produjo frutos malos, simbolizando la injusticia y la falta de fidelidad del pueblo.

Salmo Responsorial (Salmo 79, 9 y 12. 13-14. 15-16. 19-20)

El salmo pide a Dios que mire a su pueblo, lo restaure y proteja la viña que Él plantó

Segunda Lectura: (Filipenses 4, 6-9)

Nos enseña a no vivir preocupados, sino a presentar todo a Dios en oración y con acción de gracias.

Evangelio: (Mateo 21, 33-43)

Jesús enseña que Dios espera que su pueblo dé buenos frutos y responda fielmente a lo que Él le ha confiado.
