PASTOR'S LETTER

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

It's hard to tell sometimes based on the temperature, but I'd say that fall is officially here! Between seeing the leaves falling and the seasonal decorations, we've arrived to a new time of year. And with the season of the harvest, there's a lot to celebrate at St. Thomas!

The main thing I would like to highlight is that this weekend is our annual Stewardship Sunday. We are blessed to be able to celebrate a wonderful tradition of good stewardship at this parish—I'm always struck by how it's literally part of our mission statement: sharing "our time, talent, and treasure." For everyone who is so committed to being a good steward, thank you for all you do, and I pray that your generosity brings you as much joy as it brings to the rest of our community. This weekend's Gospel gives a good image of how generosity works. God is generous to us, and he invites us to join him in that same largeness of spirit. And the positive cycle of open-heartedness, when everyone shares what they have, brings us to an experience of celebration—the "royal wedding feast" of today's Gospel.

I think there's an important reason for why Scripture gives us this image: joy always wants to be shared. Just think about a time when something good happened in your life that filled you with happiness. I bet that for most of us, our first reaction was to tell a friend, maybe by picking up our phone and giving them a call, or even unexpectedly showing up on their doorstep! Joy has a way of overflowing out of us, and happiness shared is happiness doubled.

So to our whole parish family, thank you for your generosity, in so many ways. Let's resolve to experience God's joy as a community, as we share what we have and participate in the life the Lord gives us together. As we celebrate together this Sunday as a parish family, please know of my prayers that God will fill all of us with joy, this season and always. Through the intercession of Our Lady of Joyful Hope and our patron St. Thomas, we rejoice in God's goodness.

God bless,
Fr Jantz

PRAYER & MINISTRY

SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: (Isaiah 25:6-10a)

Isaiah describes the Lord preparing a great feast for all people, bringing an end to sorrow, suffering, and death. God will wipe away every tear and save His people. They will rejoice and be glad in His salvation.

Responsorial Psalm: (Psalm 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6)

The Lord is our shepherd, providing all we need and guiding us with care. Even in difficult times, we need not fear because God is with us. His goodness and mercy remain with us throughout our lives.

Second Reading: (Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20)

Paul teaches that he has learned to be content in every circumstance, whether in abundance or in need, because Christ gives him strength. He assures us that God will provide for our needs according to His riches and glory.

Gospel: (Matthew 22:1-14)

Jesus compares the Kingdom of Heaven to a wedding feast to which many are invited. The parable reminds us that God's invitation is open to all, but we must respond with faith and be prepared to live according to His call.

28° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

LECTURAS DEL DOMINGO

Primera Lectura: (Isaías 25, 6-10)

Isaías describe al Señor preparando un gran banquete para todos los pueblos, poniendo fin al dolor, al sufrimiento y a la muerte. Dios enjugará toda lágrima y salvará a su pueblo. Ellos se alegrarán y se regocijarán en su salvación.

Salmo Responsorial (Salmo 22, 1-3a. 3b-4. 5. 6)

El Señor es nuestro pastor, nos da todo lo que necesitamos y nos guía con amor. Aun en los momentos difíciles, no debemos temer porque Dios está con nosotros. Su bondad y misericordia nos acompañan todos los días de nuestra vida.

Segunda Lectura: (Filipenses 4, 12-14. 19-20)

Pablo enseña que ha aprendido a estar contento en toda circunstancia, tanto en la abundancia como en la necesidad, porque Cristo le da fortaleza. Nos asegura que Dios proveerá nuestras necesidades según su riqueza y gloria.

Evangelio: (Mateo 22, 1-14)

Jesús compara el Reino de los Cielos con un banquete de bodas al que muchos son invitados. La parábola nos recuerda que la invitación de Dios está abierta a todos, pero debemos responder con fe y estar preparados para vivir según su llamado.

CARTA DEL SACERDOTE

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

Con este calor, a veces cuesta creerlo, ¡pero yo diría que el otoño ya llegó! Ya vemos las hojas que caen de los árboles y los adornos de la temporada en las casas y en las tiendas. Hemos llegado a un nuevo tiempo del año. Y en este tiempo de la cosecha, ¡tenemos mucho que celebrar en nuestra parroquia de Santo Tomás!

Lo más importante que quiero compartirles es que este fin de semana celebramos nuestro Domingo de la Corresponsabilidad, como cada año. La corresponsabilidad quiere decir cuidar y compartir los dones que Dios nos ha dado. Es una bendición que en esta parroquia tenemos una tradición tan bonita de corresponsabilidad. Siempre me llama la atención que esto forma parte de nuestra misión como parroquia: compartir “nuestro tiempo, talento y tesoro.” A todos que viven esto con tanto compromiso, ¡muchas gracias por todo lo que hacen! Le pido a Dios que su generosidad les traiga a ustedes tanta alegría como la que le trae a toda nuestra comunidad.

El Evangelio de este domingo nos muestra muy bien cómo funciona la generosidad. Dios es generoso con nosotros, y nos invita a tener un corazón grande como el suyo. Cuando todos compartimos lo que tenemos, con el corazón abierto, la generosidad se va multiplicando y nos lleva a la fiesta: al banquete de bodas que el rey prepara en el Evangelio de hoy.

Creo que hay una razón importante por la que la Sagrada Escritura nos da esta imagen: la alegría siempre quiere compartirse. Piensen en alguna vez que les pasó algo bueno que los llenó de felicidad. Estoy seguro de que, para la mayoría de nosotros, lo primero que hicimos fue contárselo a alguien. Tal vez agarramos el celular para llamarle a un amigo o a la familia, ¡o hasta llegamos de sorpresa a su casa! La alegría no cabe en el corazón; se nos desborda. Como dice el dicho: “Alegría compartida, doble alegría.”

Por eso, a toda nuestra familia parroquial: gracias por su generosidad, de tantas maneras. Propongámonos vivir la alegría de Dios como comunidad, compartiendo lo que tenemos y participando juntos en la vida que el Señor nos regala. Al celebrar juntos este domingo como familia parroquial, sepan que los tengo presentes en mis oraciones, pidiendo que Dios nos llene a todos de alegría, en este tiempo y siempre. Por la intercesión de Nuestra Señora de la Alegre Esperanza y de nuestro patrono Santo Tomás, nos alegramos en la bondad de Dios.

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Jantz
