PASTOR'S LETTER

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The Lord's words in today's Gospel are striking. As Jesus points out the image of the emperor stamped on a coin, he says, "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God." The disciples probably wondered what exactly does belong to God, that it should be repaid to him. And the answer to that question is simple: we ourselves are stamped with the image of God.

After all, the Scriptures tell us, that God formed man and woman in his image and likeness. Which means that all that we have and all that we are come from him. Every talent and every moment are his. He has given the gifts of life and breath through his generosity, and Jesus' teaching is clear: "Repay to God what belongs to God." We give him back ourselves.

As we continue with Stewardship Month, we have an opportunity to do exactly that. Our focus this weekend will be on putting our time and talent at God's service. Particularly for new and returning parishioners, I'd invite you to become involved in a ministry. As you'll see in our bulletin, there are lots of things going on: Bible studies, prayer groups, campus ministry, social concerns, youth formation. Or perhaps you feel called a liturgical ministry, such as the choir or our lector team? We call the Mass "the source and summit of our faith"—so what better way to bear God's image than to serve him in the place where he is most powerfully present? If you feel that call, just speak with Dcn David or myself after Mass, and we'll help connect you.

I think it's important for every parishioner to be involved in some form of parish life outside of coming to Sunday Mass. The Mass is the centerpiece of our community's worship, and we experience it so much more deeply when we feel connected to what God is doing in our parish. Through the intercession of Mary Immaculate and our patron St. Thomas, let's be faithful stewards of the image of God that we bear.

God bless,
Fr Jantz

PRAYER & MINISTRY

SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: (Isaiah 45:1, 4-6)

God chose Cyrus to fulfill His plans and reveal that He alone is Lord. This reading reminds us that God guides history and works even through those who do not know Him.

Responsorial Psalm: (Psalm 96:1, 3, 4-5, 7-8, 9-10)

The psalm invites us to sing and praise the Lord, proclaiming His glory among all nations. It reminds us that God alone is Lord, worthy of worship, and that He rules the world with justice.

Second Reading: (1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b)

Saint Paul thanks God for the faith, love, and hope of the Thessalonians. He reminds us that the Gospel comes not only through words but also through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Gospel: (Matthew 22:15-21)

In this Gospel, the Pharisees try to trap Jesus by asking whether it is right to pay taxes to Caesar. Jesus responds with wisdom: "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." This teaching reminds us of the importance of fulfilling our earthly responsibilities while remembering that our greatest loyalty and devotion belong to God.

LECTURAS DEL DOMINGO

Primera Lectura: (Isaías 45, 1. 4-6)

Dios eligió a Ciro para cumplir sus planes y demostrar que Él es el único Señor. Esta lectura nos recuerda que Dios guía la historia y actúa incluso a través de quienes no lo conocen.

Salmo Responsorial (Salmo 95, 1 y 3. 4-5. 7-8. 9-10a y c)

El salmo nos invita a cantar y alabar al Señor, proclamando su gloria entre todas las naciones. Nos recuerda que Dios es el único Señor, digno de adoración, y que gobierna el mundo con justicia.

Segunda Lectura: (1 Tesalonicenses 1, 1-5)

San Pablo agradece a Dios por la fe, el amor y la esperanza de los tesalonicenses. Nos recuerda que el Evangelio llega no solo con palabras, sino también con el poder del Espíritu Santo.

Evangelio: (Mateo 22, 15-21)

En este Evangelio, los fariseos intentan poner a prueba a Jesús preguntándole si es correcto pagar impuestos al César. Jesús responde con sabiduría: “Den al César lo que es del César y a Dios lo que es de Dios”. Esta enseñanza nos recuerda la importancia de cumplir nuestras responsabilidades terrenales sin olvidar que nuestra mayor fidelidad y compromiso pertenecen a Dios.

CARTA DEL SACERDOTE

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

Las palabras del Señor en el Evangelio de hoy llaman mucho la atención. Jesús señala la imagen del emperador grabada en una moneda y dice: “Den, pues, al César lo que es del César, y a Dios lo que es de Dios.” Seguramente los discípulos se preguntaron: ¿Qué es lo que le pertenece a Dios, y que tenemos que devolverle? La respuesta es sencilla: nosotros mismos llevamos grabada la imagen de Dios.

La Sagrada Escritura nos dice que Dios creó al hombre y a la mujer a su imagen y semejanza. Eso quiere decir que todo lo que tenemos y todo lo que somos viene de él. Cada talento y cada momento de nuestra vida le pertenecen. Por pura generosidad, él nos ha regalado la vida y el aliento, y la enseñanza de Jesús es clara: hay que devolverle a Dios lo que es de Dios. Y lo que le devolvemos somos nosotros mismos.

Seguimos celebrando el Mes de la Corresponsabilidad, y ahora tenemos la oportunidad de hacer precisamente eso. Este fin de semana vamos a reflexionar sobre cómo poner nuestro tiempo y nuestros talentos al servicio de Dios. De manera especial, invito a quienes son nuevos en la parroquia, o a quienes están regresando, a participar en algún ministerio. Como pueden ver en el boletín, hay muchas actividades: estudios de la Biblia, grupos de oración, la pastoral universitaria, obras de caridad y servicio social, y la formación de los jóvenes. ¿O tal vez sienten el llamado a servir en la liturgia, por ejemplo en el coro o como lectores? Decimos que la Misa es “la fuente y la cumbre de nuestra fe.” Entonces, ¿qué mejor manera de llevar la imagen de Dios que servirle en el lugar donde él está presente con más fuerza? Si sienten ese llamado, hablen con los diáconos o conmigo después de Misa, y con gusto los ayudamos a encontrar su lugar.

Creo que es importante que cada miembro de la parroquia participe en algo de la vida parroquial, además de venir a Misa los domingos. La Misa es el centro de la vida de oración de nuestra comunidad, y la vivimos mucho más profundamente cuando nos sentimos parte de lo que Dios está haciendo en nuestra parroquia. Por la intercesión de María Inmaculada y de nuestro patrono, Santo Tomás, cuidemos con fidelidad la imagen de Dios que llevamos grabada.

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Jantz
