PASTOR'S LETTER

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As we begin to get ready for the big holiday celebrations, November is a more solemn time of year. Maybe it's because the changing of the leaves colors reminds us how things change, and the falling of the leaves reminds us that our time is short and precious. In the Church, November is a time when we call to mind our departed loved ones, and also a time when we recall the basic realities of our life. Customarily, Catholics like to use this time to reflect on what we call "the Four Last Things:" death and judgment, heaven and hell.

I know that all sounds very serious. But I don't bring it up because I want to be gloomy, or because my neighbors had some spooky Halloween decorations! We should think about those things, because it helps keep everything in perspective. When we remember that life is short and eternity is long, it helps us make much better decisions. And speaking from my own experience, when I make a point of keeping this in focus, I feel not only closer to God, but I also feel much happier in every other aspect of life.

There's a quote I like from St. Sharbel Makhluf, a 19th-century monk from Lebanon: "Do not start anything on earth if it does not end in heaven. Do not walk on a path on earth that does not lead to heaven." That's the healthiest perspective we can have on the Last Things. The mystic's words remind us that the stakes are high, and that our choices now can set us on a path that leads to eternal joy.

So let's ponder our priorities over the coming month while as a parish community we remember our dearly departed ones and reflect on the Last Things. Through the intercession of Blessed Mary, Ever-Virgin, and our patron Saint Thomas, let's learn to live each day in the light of eternity.

God bless,
Fr Jantz

CARTA DEL SACERDOTE

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

Mientras empezamos a prepararnos para las grandes fiestas de fin de año, noviembre es un tiempo más serio. Tal vez es porque las hojas de los árboles cambian de color y nos recuerdan que todo en esta vida cambia; y cuando las hojas caen, nos recuerdan que nuestro tiempo es corto y muy valioso. En la Iglesia, noviembre es el mes en que recordamos a nuestros queridos difuntos, y también un tiempo para pensar en las verdades más básicas de nuestra vida. Por costumbre, los católicos aprovechamos este mes para reflexionar sobre lo que la Iglesia llama "los Novísimos," las cuatro realidades últimas: la muerte, el juicio, el cielo y el infierno.

Yo sé que todo esto suena muy serio. Pero no lo menciono porque quiera ponernos tristes. Debemos pensar en estas cosas porque nos ayudan a poner cada cosa en su lugar. Cuando recordamos que la vida es corta y la eternidad es larga, tomamos decisiones mucho mejores. Y les hablo por experiencia propia: cuando me esfuerzo por no perder esto de vista, no solo me siento más cerca de Dios, sino que también me siento mucho más feliz en todo lo demás de mi vida.

Hay unas palabras que me gustan mucho de San Charbel, un monje del Líbano que vivió hace más de cien años: "No empieces nada en la tierra que no termine en el cielo. No camines por ningún camino en la tierra que no lleve al cielo." Esa es la manera más sana de ver los Novísimos. Las palabras de este santo nos recuerdan que lo que está en juego es muy grande, y que las decisiones que tomamos hoy pueden ponernos en el camino que lleva a la alegría eterna.

Así que, durante este mes, pensemos bien en qué es lo más importante en nuestra vida, mientras como comunidad parroquial recordamos a nuestros queridos difuntos y reflexionamos sobre los Novísimos. Por la intercesión de Santa María, siempre Virgen, y de nuestro patrono, Santo Tomás Apóstol, aprendamos a vivir cada día con la mirada puesta en la eternidad.

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Jantz
