PASTOR'S LETTER

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Continuing with our reflection on the Last Things, this week I'd like to focus on something we usually don't like to think about: the final judgment. Our Gospel today is the famous Parable of the Talents. In it, three stewards are each entrusted with part of their master's property while he is away, and upon his return, he judges what each of them have done with it.

Usually when we hear this parable, our minds immediately go to the idea of stewardship—and that's very natural! But as we contemplate the Last Things, I think we can also hear an echo of a bigger truth here. I love the words that the Master says to the good stewards: "Come, share your master's joy." Since we are all God's children, every human being has two possibilities within ourselves. We can be like the good stewards, who grew into what they were made to be: open to the infinite and eternal joys of life with God in heaven. Or in our selfishness and fear, we can be like the unfaithful steward, closing ourselves off from God's love and missing out on what we were made to be.

With the final judgment, we know that God will one day set his seal upon the choices we've made. That's a sobering thought. But at the same time, we know that the God who will judge us is our loving Father, and that he's giving us all the assistance we need right now to become people capable of receiving the fullness of his love.

As we come to the holiday season, I am deeply grateful that St. Thomas is a place where so many people have come to experience God's love. Thank you all for showing that love to me and to everyone who walks through our doors. Through the prayers of the Blessed Mother and our patron St. Thomas, let's look at each day in the light of eternity, and resolve to continue to grow in that love.

God bless,
Fr Jantz

CARTA DEL SACERDOTE

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

Siguiendo con nuestra reflexión sobre las realidades últimas (la muerte, el juicio, el cielo y el infierno), esta semana quiero hablarles de algo en lo que normalmente no nos gusta pensar: el juicio final. El Evangelio de hoy es la famosa parábola de los talentos. En ella, un hombre que se va de viaje deja sus bienes en manos de tres servidores. Cuando regresa, le pide cuentas a cada uno de lo que hizo con lo que recibió.

Casi siempre, cuando escuchamos esta parábola, pensamos enseguida en la corresponsabilidad, en cómo usamos los dones que Dios nos da. ¡Y eso está muy bien! Pero ahora que reflexionamos sobre las realidades últimas, creo que aquí también podemos escuchar algo todavía más grande. Me encantan las palabras que el señor les dice a los servidores buenos: "Entra a tomar parte en la alegría de tu señor." Todos somos hijos de Dios, y cada uno de nosotros lleva dentro dos caminos posibles. Podemos ser como los servidores buenos, que llegaron a ser lo que Dios quería que fueran: personas abiertas a la alegría sin fin de vivir con Dios en el cielo. O, por egoísmo y por miedo, podemos ser como el servidor que no fue fiel: cerrarnos al amor de Dios y perder aquello para lo que fuimos creados.

Sabemos que en el juicio final Dios pondrá su sello para siempre sobre las decisiones que tomamos en la vida. Esto nos debe hacer pensar en serio. Pero, al mismo tiempo, sabemos que el Dios que nos va a juzgar es nuestro Padre que nos ama, y que ahora mismo nos está dando toda la ayuda que necesitamos para llegar a ser personas capaces de recibir su amor en plenitud.

Ahora que se acercan las fiestas de fin de año, le doy muchas gracias a Dios porque nuestra parroquia de Santo Tomás es un lugar donde tantas personas han podido experimentar el amor de Dios. Gracias a todos ustedes por mostrarme ese amor a mí y a cada persona que llega a nuestras puertas. Por la intercesión de la Santísima Virgen María y de nuestro patrono, Santo Tomás Apóstol, miremos cada día a la luz de la eternidad y propongámonos seguir creciendo en ese amor.

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Jantz
