PASTOR'S LETTER

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Continuing with our reflection on the Last Things, this week I'd like to focus on something we usually don't like to think about: the final judgment. The feast day we celebrate today challenges us to see ourselves as servants of Christ the King. What does it mean to belong to his kingdom? Christ's kingship is not about power as the world understands it. Instead, it's a kingship of love, truth, and justice, exercised for the benefit of the poor and needy: "the least of these," which from God's perspective includes every one of his creatures. He invites us to live in allegiance to him, shaping our lives according to his values, so that we may one day stand confidently before him when Jesus comes in glory to judge the living and the dead.

When we think of the final judgment, it's easy to feel nervous. But Jesus, our King, has already given us the roadmap. He judges us not merely by the good we do but by how we respond to his call to love and follow him. The words of Christ in Matthew 25—"Come, you who are blessed by my Father; inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world"—remind us of our ultimate destiny: life with God in his kingdom.
The choices we make here and now shape our readiness for that kingdom. Christ the King offers us every grace we need to live as his faithful servants. By embracing his reign in our hearts, we open ourselves to the infinite and eternal joys of life with him.

As we come to the holiday season, I am deeply grateful that St. Thomas is a place where so many people have come to experience the love of Christ our King. Thank you for showing that love to me and to everyone who walks through our doors. Through the prayers of the Blessed Mother and our patron St. Thomas, may we live each day in light of eternity, proclaiming with our lives that Jesus Christ is King. A happy Thanksgiving to everyone!

God bless,
Fr Jantz

CARTA DEL SACERDOTE

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,
Siguiendo con nuestra reflexión sobre los Novísimos, las realidades últimas, esta semana quiero hablarles de algo en lo que casi nunca nos gusta pensar: el juicio final. La fiesta que celebramos hoy nos invita a vernos como servidores de Cristo Rey. ¿Qué quiere decir pertenecer a su Reino? Cristo no es rey con el poder que busca el mundo. Su reinado es de amor, de verdad y de justicia, y lo ejerce para el bien de los pobres y necesitados: «los más insignificantes», que a los ojos de Dios somos todas y cada una de sus criaturas. Él nos invita a serle fieles y a ordenar nuestra vida según lo que él valora, para que un día podamos presentarnos ante él con confianza, cuando Jesús venga con gloria para juzgar a vivos y muertos.

Cuando pensamos en el juicio final, es fácil ponernos nerviosos. Pero Jesús, nuestro Rey, ya nos mostró el camino. Él no nos juzga solamente por las obras buenas que hacemos, sino por cómo respondemos a su llamado a amarlo y seguirlo. Las palabras de Cristo en el Evangelio de san Mateo, «Vengan, benditos de mi Padre; tomen posesión del Reino preparado para ustedes desde la creación del mundo», nos recuerdan cuál es nuestro destino final: la vida con Dios en su Reino.

Las decisiones que tomamos aquí y ahora nos van preparando para ese Reino. Cristo Rey nos ofrece todas las gracias que necesitamos para vivir como sus servidores fieles. Cuando lo dejamos reinar en nuestro corazón, nos abrimos a las alegrías infinitas y eternas de la vida con él. Al llegar las fiestas de fin de año, doy muchas gracias a Dios porque Santo Tomás es un lugar donde tantas personas han venido a conocer el amor de Cristo, nuestro Rey. Gracias por mostrarme ese amor a mí y a todos los que cruzan nuestras puertas. Por las oraciones de la Santísima Virgen y de nuestro patrono, Santo Tomás, vivamos cada día con la mirada puesta en la eternidad, proclamando con nuestra vida que Jesucristo es Rey. ¡Viva Cristo Rey!

Les deseo a todos un feliz Día de Acción de Gracias.

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Jantz
