WINEMAKING & VINEYARD

Organic. 70% Grüner Veltliner and 30% Riesling. Both varietals are grown on rocky Löss from 215 to 360 meters above sea level, from vines planted from 1960-2008. The fruit was hand harvested, and the Riesling saw 4 short hours of maceration before both varieties were pressed together and co-ferment in large neutral barrels. The wine was then aged for 15 months on the lees in barrel, and bottled unfined, unfiltered with 16 mg/l sulfite. This is a wine that punches far above its weight class. Marrying classic Kamptal varieties with the energy and lift that Martin and Anna's wines exhibit so well.
