Our restaurant is dedicated to Bill Jackson, a great chef and better friend, who was stolen from us by ALS March 1, 2008. Our zany name and retro warehouse design reflect how important it was to Bill that our guests be relaxed, comfortable and happy. Bill took what he did seriously but never took himself that way. He understood his food wasn't about him; it was all about the people cooking and serving it. His wisdom and laughter will never leave us. Sharing it with you brings us joy.

Bill, Chris, Spencer, Chad, Paul, Sarith and the Usual Suspects created the food. We hope you enjoy their inspired results.

The design team of Leon Chatelain and Alex Crawford of Chatelain Architects developed the vision and the plans for "Billy's Place."

Our favorite artist, John Gable of Woolwich, Maine painted our murals and Bill's "family portrait" by the kitchen. Bill loved the Rascals.

Jill, Spencer and Kirsten used their life time allotment of B, S & T side by side with Craig, Rob, Adriana, Brian and Matt of Shawmut Design and Construction to get our retro warehouse built.

Special thanks to the stars behind the curtain: Dana, Marion, Lori, Carleen, Cheryl, Katie, Natalie, Dave, Kevin, Ascary, Tom & Jon. We couldn't open with out you.

ROCK ON, BILLY!
