

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN MONTENEGRO: BKFC AND CONOR MCGREGOR ARRIVE IN BUDVA

Budva, Montenegro - This summer, Budva will host a major international sporting event as the Bare Knuckle Fighting Championship (BKFC) comes to Montenegro for the first time, with the support and presence of its co-founder and legendary UFC champion Conor McGregor.

The main event is scheduled for 30 August at Top Hill, where Montenegrin fighter Vaso Bakočević will face Austria's Wilhelm Otto, alongside a dynamic fight card and a full evening programme set to deliver an unforgettable night of sport.

Dukley Hotel & Resort is a proud partner and host of the official press conference, where accredited media will have the exclusive opportunity to hear from the organisers, fighters and special guests.

 Dukley Gardens, Budva

 Friday, August 29, 2025

 18:00 h

This event holds particular importance for Budva and Montenegro, bringing significant global media exposure, strengthening the country's image as an international destination and opening the door to new collaborations.

Accreditation is required to attend the press conference.
Please confirm your attendance in advance via: press@dukley.com

For those unable to register beforehand, on-site accreditation will be available upon presentation of a valid press ID.
Due to high interest, early confirmation is strongly recommended.

