BRIDAL MAKEUP MASTERCLASS

Budva, Montenegro – On March 21–22, renowned Serbian makeup artist Snežana Karović Ćorić hosted an exclusive bridal makeup masterclass at Dukley Hotel & Resort, bringing together a carefully selected group of participants in a refined luxury setting.

The program was designed as a realistic bridal preparation experience, following a full wedding-day scenario within the resort's penthouse apartments. Participants had the opportunity to work on models, refine advanced techniques, and engage in a process that combined makeup artistry with professional photography and styling.

Photoshoots were conducted across terraces and interiors, in collaboration with leading bridal photographers and industry partners, resulting in high-quality visual content for professional portfolios.

The event also gathered influencers and key figures from the wedding industry, further strengthening Dukley's position as a premier destination for luxury weddings and sophisticated lifestyle experiences.
