The event brought together key representatives of hotels, venues, agencies, and corporate event organizers, enabling a full day of focused and highly productive B2B meetings. The dynamic pace of scheduled sessions once again highlighted the value of direct, face-to-face interaction in building partnerships and identifying new business opportunities.

Discussions throughout the event emphasized the evolving role of hotels as comprehensive event partners, offering complete guest experiences rather than serving solely as venues. In this context, Dukley further reinforced its position as a relevant and competitive player within the regional MICE segment.

The day concluded with the traditional SEEvent Party, marking the 20th anniversary of Kongresniturizam.com, in an atmosphere that celebrated industry connection, collaboration, and shared passion.
