After years of developing its distinctive approach to hospitality, gastronomy and destination experiences on the Adriatic coast, Dukley is bringing its expertise to the north of Montenegro.

With Mountain Retreat by Dukley now welcoming guests in Kolašin, the brand introduces a contemporary take on mountain hospitality and a new year-round experience in one of Montenegro's most dynamic emerging destinations.

In winter, the resort provides an ideal base for skiing and days in the snow, while the warmer months reveal a different side of Bjelasica through outdoor activities, long days in nature and the refreshing mountain climate.

FROM MOUNTAIN CHALETs TO LUXURY GLAMPING

Mountain Retreat offers different ways to experience the destination, with accommodation designed around comfort, privacy and a close connection to the surrounding landscape.

Contemporary mountain chalets provide the privacy and warmth of a home in nature, with 32 elegantly designed apartments within them, combining comfort, panoramic views and easy access to the resort's facilities. Selected apartments also feature private saunas.

The accommodation offering is complemented by glamping bungalows, created for guests who want to stay even closer to nature without compromising on comfort. During the warmer months, the outdoor swimming pool becomes one of the resort's central leisure areas. By day, it is a place to unwind under the mountain sun, while in the evening it provides a striking natural backdrop for cocktails, receptions and outdoor events.

Families can also enjoy a dedicated children's area with a playground, while the resort's practical infrastructure includes electric vehicle charging stations.

GASTRONOMY AND A NEW SETTING FOR EVENTS

At the heart of the resort's culinary offering is Ember Restaurant, which follows the natural rhythm of a day in the mountains, from relaxed lunches to evening dining and specially curated menus for private and corporate occasions.

Mountain Retreat further expands its offering with a dedicated Event Centre, designed for conferences, business gatherings, incentive programmes, weddings and private celebrations.

The versatile 240 m² event hall can be adapted to a range of formats, from presentations and conferences to gala dinners and special occasions. Its key advantage lies in being part of a complete resort setting. Accommodation, gastronomy, outdoor areas, the pool and the surrounding landscape allow an event to move naturally between different spaces throughout the day, all within one destination.

For companies, Mountain Retreat offers an alternative to conventional city venues, combining professional infrastructure with the atmosphere of Bjelasica. For private celebrations, the mountain setting adds a distinctive sense of occasion, with nature itself becoming part of the experience.

KOLAŠIN, ALL YEAR ROUND

Mountain Retreat by Dukley brings together accommodation, gastronomy, nature, family-friendly facilities and event spaces within one contemporary mountain destination.

By transferring Dukley's hospitality expertise from the Adriatic coast to Bjelasica, Mountain Retreat introduces a fresh perspective on Kolašin and further strengthens its position as a destination for every season.
