VENUE OVERVIEW

OUR STORY

A staple of Vancouver's entertainment scene, the historic Vogue Theatre is one of the last remaining gems from the city's famed Theatre Row. Locally owned and operated, this iconic venue has stood on Granville Street since 1941, originally built as a movie house and performing arts space. Today, the Vogue has evolved into a world-class destination for concerts, film screenings, and corporate and community events, hosting over 200 events annually. A true blend of history and modern entertainment, it remains one of Canada's premier live event venues.

VENUE CAPACITY

From corporate gatherings and networking events to holiday parties and full venue buyouts, our space is designed to accommodate events of all sizes. Whether you're planning a seated dinner, a lively cocktail reception, or something in between, we've got the flexibility to bring your vision to life.
