Terms and Conditions of Participation

Contract Duration

Participation in the BPAL Wolves Basketball Program is a one-year commitment for the 2026-2027 season. This agreement is binding for the full season and includes adherence to attendance, conduct, and financial obligations.

Attendance Policy

Players must attend all practices and games, arrive on time, and be dressed appropriately (basketball attire only—no jewelry, hats, or non-essential accessories).

Unexcused absences may result in reduced playing time or dismissal from the team. Absences must be communicated and approved in advance when possible.

September 2026 - August 2027

Commitment & Expectations

This is a team-first program. All players are expected to:

- Prioritize BPAL Wolves basketball.
- Be coachable and focused.
- Demonstrate consistent hustle, discipline, and a strong work ethic.
- Strive for excellence without waiting for constant direction.

Work Ethic

Our foundation is built on effort and discipline. We expect to outwork every other team through strong habits, technique, and intensity.

Respect Policy

Players must show respect to coaches, teammates, opponents, and officials at all times. Profanity, unsportsmanlike conduct, or disrespect will not be tolerated.

Conflict Resolution

Concerns must be addressed directly with the individual involved (coach or teammate) before being brought to others. We value open, respectful communication.
