Reflections from the partners/founders

Reflecting on 2025, the company retreat was a definitive highlight for us. It provided a unique opportunity to bring the team together to foster deeper understanding and cohesion, gathering us in one space to strengthen our bonds and align our vision. We had a Soiree which was a memorable occasion, allowing us to celebrate with friends, clients, and partners of the Hive.

This year taught us profound lessons in patience, perseverance, and the power of placing faith in one another through open communication. It also reinforced the value of trusting our colleagues and prioritising real-time feedback. We are incredibly proud of how the team navigated internal transitions, maintaining excellence during critical periods of the year.

For 2026, our focus remains clear: to grow as a Pan-African organisation, deepen our expertise in emerging sectors, and achieve sustainable success together.

Inside the Hive

The Hive had quite a year full of growth, grit, and connections that felt genuine. We worked on making remote work actually work for us, rolled out policies focused on people, started regular wellness check-ins, and opened up new learning opportunities. Everything we did had a purpose behind it. We stayed transparent, celebrated wins out loud, and supported each other in the quiet moments.

The team really evolved this year. We brought in new faces, deepened the relationships we already had, and collaboration just started to flow naturally instead of feeling forced. What really stood out was how teams owned their work but still had each other's backs.

Looking back, alignment was the theme. Staying aligned with our values, keeping our culture intact, and proving you can do excellent work while putting people first.

As we move into 2026, the focus is on strengthening accountability, communication, and wellbeing. We will keep fine-tuning our operations, adding clarity where it is needed, and maintaining Tech Hive as a space where great work comes naturally and support is always there.

Here's to growing more, seeing things clearer, collaborating better, and keeping the Hive strong year after year.

Thinking Forward

Entering the new year, our strategic focus shifts to legacy—building the foundation for the next decade. We aim to capitalise on our successes and refine our areas for growth, all while maintaining our standard of excellence.

Our people remain at the centre of everything we do. We will continue to support the team through learning, collaboration, innovation, or wellbeing initiatives, knowing that our strength lies in working together.

The future of the Hive is one of growth, clarity, and purpose. We are excited about what lies ahead and grateful to everyone who is part of this journey.”

“Looking back at 2025, the defining realisation for Tech Hive Advisory is that people make the difference. It is the synergy between our projects, our clients, and our team’s resilience that has built our current identity.

Hiver of the year

Precious Nwadike

Team Lead, Regulatory Intelligence

They say third time's the charm; turns out it's true!

---

Year one? Let's just say I learned valuable lessons in what not to do. Year two, I got my "mojo" back, and it earned me the "comeback kid of the year" award. And now, here I am:

Hiver of the Year!

The point of this background? To show you the reward of having staying power. Showing up long enough that people forget your initial missteps. Staying power is not glamorous, but it's effective. I have learned that success isn't about being brilliant immediately; it's about being stubborn enough to stick around until you figure things out.

Massive thanks to my Ridwan, Deji, Nurudeen, they have taught me that growth happens in increments. And to my team; you make my work easier.

Here's to persistence, second (and third) chances, grit, and the beautiful chaos of finally getting it right.

"Looking back on 2025, the period from January until now has seen us rethink how we imagine our businesses and products, leading to important updates to the agreements and policies that guide our relationship with customers. Throughout this journey, Tech Hive has been consistently available to provide the support we needed.

As a company driven by the mission to adopt cutting-edge technology to transform healthcare across Africa, rapid adaptation and continuous innovation are part of our DNA. At the same time, operating in a highly regulated industry requires the caution and restraint necessary to stay compliant. This often places us at the crossroads of innovation and regulation. This is a balance that has become even more critical with the growing influence of Artificial Intelligence on business development.

Tech Hive's expertise and proactive guidance have played a crucial role in helping us evolve, engage new partners, and remain compliant throughout what has been a disruptive yet transformative year."

Legal Basis Launch

This year, we launched The Legal Basis Project, a new initiative to help Nigerians understand why their personal data is collected and used. The platform explains the six legal reasons for data processing in simple terms, offers tools for businesses, and includes fun games and guides.

As Nigeria becomes more digital, knowing your rights online is important. This project makes it easy for everyone to learn, stay protected, and build trust in the services they use. Visit Legalbasis.ng to explore more.
