SUPER HIGH ROLLER

R75,000 Super High Roller – Registration, Seating & Stack Protection Rules

Tournament Format: Single Re-Entry

Maximum Capacity: 27 Unique Players

Due to the Super High Roller taking place alongside Day 3 of the R25,000 Mega Millions, the following special registration and seating rules will apply.

1. Registration Requirements

- All players must be registered for the Super High Roller before the tournament commences.
- Registration is strictly limited to 27 unique players.
- No new player registrations will be accepted once the tournament has started, regardless of whether empty seats are available.
- The single re-entry format remains applicable to eligible registered players.

2. Players Not Participating in Mega Millions Day 3

- All registered players not actively competing in Day 3 of the Mega Millions are expected to be seated at the start of the Super High Roller.
- Their starting stacks will be placed into play from the first hand dealt, regardless of whether they are physically present.
- Absent players will have their stacks blinded out in accordance with normal tournament procedures.

3. Players Participating in Mega Millions Day 3

Players actively competing in Day 3 of the Mega Millions will receive a special seating exemption, subject to the following conditions:

- Players must have registered for the Super High Roller before it begins.
- Their Super High Roller starting stacks will be reserved and will not be placed into play while they remain active in the Mega Millions.
- Upon elimination from the Mega Millions, players will have a 45-minute grace period to take their seats in the Super High Roller.
- If a player has not taken their seat within 45 minutes of elimination from the Mega Millions, their Super High Roller stack will be placed into play and will begin being blinded out.
- Players who take their seats within the 45-minute grace period will receive their full, unblinded starting stacks.

4. Important Registration Clarification

The Mega Millions exemption applies exclusively to seating and stack protection. It does not extend the Super High Roller registration deadline.

Participation in Day 3 of the Mega Millions does not automatically guarantee entry into the Super High Roller.

All players must secure their registration before the Super High Roller commences, subject to the maximum capacity of 27 unique players.
