This special menu is a celebration of our Head Chef Nicolas Argentine heritage and the flavours that shaped his love for food. Born and raised in Argentina, Nic brings the traditions, memories and passion of his homeland to Mojo's Kitchen, Bar & Bottleshop, inspired by family gatherings, shared meals and the vibrant food culture of Argentina.

From the warmth of the asado grill to the simple yet powerful flavours found around every Argentine table, the dish tells a story of connection, tradition and home. By enjoying this special, you're not only experiencing the flavours of Argentina, but also celebrating Nic's journey and the culture that continues to inspire his cooking.
