La Bella Romana Catering

Angelo Caputo's Fresh Markets was founded in 1958 by Angelo Caputo with the support of his family, especially his wife Romana Caputo. Romana was Angelo's guiding force and his pillar of strength. In 1984, Angelo began his quest to start a private label that would deliver premium quality to our loyal customers. He saw this new private label as an opportunity to honor his wife and decided to name it " La Bella Romana" which translates to "The Beautiful Romana." La Bella Romana products are sold exclusively at Angelo Caputo's Fresh Markets.

Romana was very well known for her undying passion for cooking. Nobody could prepare a feast or host a party quite like she could. Every guest left her house full- and more importantly, feeling like a member of the family! Her devotion and incredible talent for cooking directly inspired many of our featured recipes that we use to this day. In upholding Romana's legacy, we take great pride in preparing delicious meals with the finest ingredients.

Family is who we are and food is what we know. Our mission is for you to maximize the time spent with your family at the table. Choosing La Bella Romana Catering is an efficient and convenient way to make any event or gathering a delicious success!

BUON APPETITO!

From our family to yours,
