THREE MILE LIMIT

Pineapple and Toasted Macadamia Infused Dead Mans Spiced Rum, Pineapple Oleo, Lime

Named for the three-mile limit that once kept smugglers at bay, this cocktail hide danger in plain sight. Rum infused with toasted macadamia and pineapple meets lime for a punchy, smooth, unforgettable sip secretly irresistible

THE MARY JANE

Aperol, Vodka, Marmalade, Egg White, Orange, Lime.

Our most famous temptation. Finished tableside with flamed orange peel and a rosemary garnish set alight, she arrives glowing and impossible to resist. A bold first hit melts into a silky, citrus-soft finish sweet, bitter and dangerously smooth.

GEORGE REMUS

Buffalo Trace Bourbon, Apple Juice, Punch Olivette, Honey, Bitters, Smoked

Named for the notorious “King of the Bootleggers,” George Remus built an empire during Prohibition by exploiting loopholes, bribing officials, and keeping the whiskey flowing. Smooth, clever and deceptively dangerous, this cocktail mirrors the man himself polished on the surface, with a rebellious edge beneath.

MR LUM

In-house Cucumber Tequila, Cointreau, Umeshu, Chillies, Soy Syrup Reduction, Lime.

Named for the Lum Inn, which ran in this building’s basement for over 40 years, this cocktail is for the adventurous. Ninety-day cucumber-infused tequila meets a spicy, umami-rich syrup for a bold, sophisticated sip unexpected, intriguing, and utterly memorable

ARTHUR AVE - Not on the menu. Never off the table.

The people have spoken, and Arthur Ave has earned its place in Olivette history. While it may have disappeared from the menu, those in the know understand that some signatures are simply too good to let go.

Consider it your little VIP secret, whisper Arthur Ave to our bartenders and we'll know exactly what to do.

Sorry George, Anna couldn't quite let this one go.

Some cocktails are classics. Others become legends.

SING OUT SOUR

Vodka, Lemoncello, Raspberry, Lavender, Mango, Orange, Lemon, Egg White

A bright, silken sour with lifted aromatics and a delicate floral finish. Balanced between crisp citrus, soft sweetness and a gentle tang, this cocktail is light on its feet yet beautifully structured — a refined sour with old-world charm and modern finesse
