

HARVARD CAPS HARRIS POLL

Field Dates: October 24-26, 2026

SURVEY METHOD

This survey was conducted online within the United States on October 24-26, 2026, among 2,700 registered voters by The Harris Poll and HarrisX.

Respondents for this poll are recruited through opt-in, web-panel recruitment sampling. Recruitment occurs through a broad variety of professional, validated respondent panels to expand the sampling frame as wide as possible and minimize the impact of any given panel on recruiting methods.

Results are weighted for age within gender, region, race/ethnicity, marital status, household size, income, employment, education, political party, and political ideology where necessary to align them with their actual proportions in the population. Propensity score weighting was also used to adjust for respondents' propensity to be online. The margin of error for the total sample is +/- 1.9 pts on a 95% confidence level.

The poll was supervised by pollsters:

Mark Penn (Chairman, The Harris Poll)

Dritan Nesho (CEO, HarrisX)

Stephen Ansolabehere (Professor and CAPS Director Emeritus, Harvard University)

SCOTUS

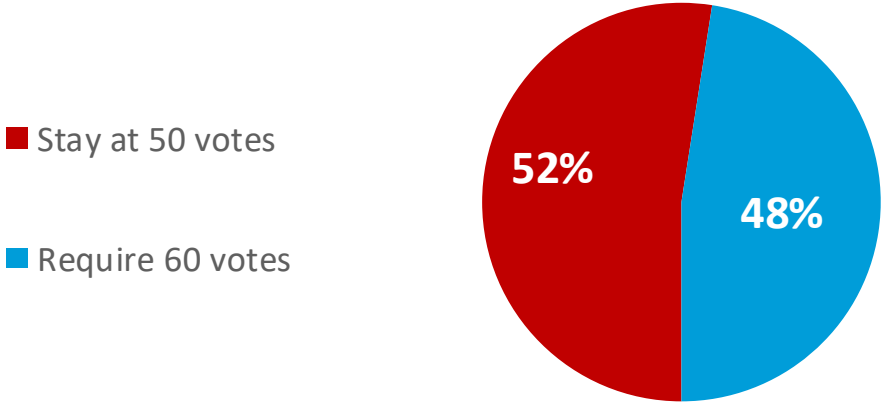

OVER 2 IN 3 OPPOSE EXPANDING THE SUPREME COURT, WHILE A SLIM MAJORITY FAVOR KEEPING THE 50-VOTE THRESHOLD FOR APPOINTMENTS

HARVARD CAPS
HARRIS POLL

If one party is unhappy with the Supreme Court rulings, do you think they should wait until they get to appoint justices or should they move to pack the court by expanding it and appointing justices favorable to their policies?

In the past, judges required at least 60 votes in the Senate to be appointed. But the Democrats lowered it to 50 votes and so bipartisan cooperation was no longer necessary to appoint justices if the president and a majority of the senate were from the same party. And then the Republicans gained power and were able to use this change for Supreme Court Justices. Do you think judgeship appointments should stay at 50 votes or go back to requiring 60 votes?
