IF YOU RECEIVED NOTICE FROM KATZ NANNIS & SOLOMON, P.C.
THAT YOUR PRIVATE INFORMATION MAY HAVE BEEN IMPACTED IN A
DATA INCIDENT, A PROPOSED CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT MAY AFFECT YOUR RIGHTS

A court has authorized this notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

You are not being sued.

Please read this Notice carefully and completely.

- A Settlement has been reached with Katz Nannis & Solomon, P.C. in a class action lawsuit concerning the targeted cyberattack on Katz Nannis & Solomon, P.C.'s computer systems that occurred on or about November 21, 2023 (the "Data Incident"), in which certain files that contained private information were allegedly accessed by an unauthorized individual. The information included names, addresses, dates of birth, Social Security numbers, medical information and financial account information.
- The lawsuit is captioned Bertha Godbee, Delores Jackson Williams and Phenicia Brown, on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated v. Katz Nannis + Solomon, P.C., Case No. CACE25005192, currently pending in the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit Court for Broward County, Florida (the "Action").
- Katz Nannis & Solomon, P.C. denies each and all of the claims and contentions alleged against it in the Action and denies all charges of wrongdoing or liability alleged (or which could be alleged) in the Action but has agreed to a settlement to avoid the costs and risks associated with continuing the litigation.
- You are included in the Settlement Class if you received a Notice Letter from Katz Nannis & Solomon, P.C. notifying you that your private information was compromised in the Data Incident.

- Your rights are affected whether you act or don't act. Please read this Notice carefully and completely.

Basic Information

1. Why was this Notice issued?

The Seventeenth Judicial Circuit Court for Broward County, Florida authorized this Notice because you have a right to know about the proposed Settlement of this class action lawsuit, and about all your options before the Court decides whether to grant final approval of the Settlement. This Notice explains the lawsuit, your legal rights, what benefits are available, and who can receive them.

The lawsuit is captioned Bertha Godbee, Delores Jackson Williams and Phenicia Brown, on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated v. Katz Nannis + Solomon, P.C., Case No. CACE25005192, currently pending in the Seventh Judicial Circuit Court for Broward County, Florida. The people that filed this lawsuit are called the “Plaintiffs” (or “Class Representatives”) and the entity they sued, Katz Nannis + Solomon, P.C., is called the “Defendant.”

2. What is this lawsuit about?

This lawsuit alleges that private and sensitive information may have been impacted due to the unauthorized access to Defendant’s computer systems on or about November 21, 2023 (the “Data Incident”). The information included names, addresses, dates of birth, social security numbers, medical information, and financial account information.

3. What is a class action?

In a class action, one or more individuals sue on behalf of other people with similar claims. These individuals are known as “Plaintiffs” or “Class Representatives.” Together, the people included in the class action are called a “class” or “class members.” One court resolves the lawsuit for all class members, except for those who opt out from a settlement. In this Settlement, the Class Representatives are Bertha Godbee, Delores Jackson Williams and Phenicia Brown, and everyone included in this Action are the Class Members.

4. Why is there a Settlement?

The Court did not decide in favor of the Plaintiffs or the Defendant. The Plaintiffs and the Defendant have agreed to a Settlement to avoid the costs and risks of a trial, and to allow the Class Members to receive benefits from the Settlement. The Plaintiffs and their attorneys think the Settlement is best for all Class Members.

Who is in the Settlement?

5. Who is included in the Settlement?

The Settlement Class includes all persons residing in the United States who were sent a Notice Letter notifying them that their Private Information was compromised in the Data Incident.

6. Are there exceptions to being included?

Yes. Excluded from the Settlement Class are Katz Nannis & Solomon, P.C., the Judge assigned to the Action, and that Judge’s immediate family and Court staff.

If you are not sure whether you are included in the Settlement Class, you can ask for free help by contacting the Settlement Administrator at:

The Settlement Benefits

7. What does the Settlement provide?

Katz Nannis & Solomon, P.C. will provide a number of benefits under the Settlement Agreement. You are not limited to one benefit. If you are eligible for multiple benefits, as described below, you may file a claim for each of them.

Identity Theft Protection Services. All Class Members may claim three years of identity theft protection services provided by three credit monitoring bureaus. This protection includes up to $1 million in identity theft insurance.

Reimbursement for Out-of-Pocket Expenses. Class Members may submit a Claim for reimbursement of documented out-of-pocket losses reasonably traceable to the Data Incident. This reimbursement is capped at $275 for Class Members who are current or former Katz Nannis & Solomon, P.C. clients and/or dependents. Out-of-Pocket Expense Claims include:

- unreimbursed bank fees;
- long distance phone charges;
- cell phone charges (only if charged by the minute);
- data charges (only if charged based on the amount of data used);
- postage;
- freezing or unfreezing credit reports (with demonstration that a free freeze was not available)
- copying or scanning, or faxing incident pertinent information;
- fees for identity theft protection services and plans; or
- gasoline for local travel.

You must submit documentation, such as receipts, to verify the costs you incurred. You may submit “self-prepared” documents to add clarity or support to other submitted documentation, but self-prepared documents by themselves are not sufficient to file a valid claim.

Lost Time Reimbursement. Class members who spent at least one full hour dealing with the Data Incident may claim up to 5 hours, at $20 per hour, for lost time, which is to be included in the $275 cap for ordinary losses. This benefit may be combined with Reimbursement for Out-of-Pocket Expenses, subject to the caps described above.

You must submit a brief description on the Claim Form of how you spent this time.

Reimbursement for Actual Monetary Loss. Class Members who suffered an actual, documented monetary loss as a result of the Data Incident may claim reimbursement for the loss. This reimbursement is capped at $2,500 for Class Members who are current or former Katz Nannis & Solomon, P.C. clients and/or dependents.

The losses must be:

- actual, documented, and unreimbursed;
- more likely than not caused by the Data Incident;
- occurred between November 21, 2023, and September 5, 2025; and

- not already covered by one or more of the other benefits, as described above.

You must also have tried to avoid these losses, or tried to get reimbursed from other sources, if possible.

For all cash benefits, you must also attest under penalty of perjury that these expenses or losses resulted from dealing with the Data Incident.

If you have questions about any of these benefits, or how to file a claim, you can contact the Settlement Administrator at:

Email: info@KatzNannisSolomonSettlement.com

You may also view the Settlement Agreement at www.KatzNannisSolomonSettlement.com.

8. What claims am I releasing if I stay in the Settlement Class?

Unless you opt out of the Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against the Defendant about any of the legal claims this Settlement resolves. The “Release” section of the Settlement Agreement describes the legal claims that you give up if you remain in the Settlement Class. The Settlement Agreement is available for review at www.KatzNannisSolomonSettlement.com.

Submitting a Claim Form for Settlement Benefits

9. How do I submit a claim for a Settlement benefit?

The fastest way to submit your Claim Form is online at www.KatzNannisSolomonSettlement.com. If you prefer, you can download the Claim Form from the website and mail it to the Settlement Administrator at:

Katz Nannis & Solomon, P.C. Data Incident Settlement
c/o Settlement Administrator
P.O. Box 25226
Santa Ana, CA 92799

You may also contact the Settlement Administrator to request a Claim Form by telephone, toll free, 1-833-296-0760, by email info@KatzNannisSolomonSettlement.com, or by U.S. mail at the address above.

10. What is the deadline for submitting a claim?

If you are submitting a Claim Form online, you must do so by September 5, 2025. If you are submitting a claim by U.S. mail, the completed and signed Claim Form, along with any supporting documentation, must be mailed so it is postmarked no later than September 5, 2025.

11. When will the Settlement benefits be issued?

The Court will hold a final approval hearing on December 4, 2025, at 9:30 a.m. If the Court approves the Settlement, there may be appeals. It is always uncertain whether appeals will be filed and, if so, how long it will take to resolve them.

Settlement benefits will be distributed if the Court grants final approval of the Settlement and after any appeals are resolved, or after the period to seek an appeal has expired.

The Lawyers Representing You

12. Do I have a lawyer in the case?

Yes, the Court appointed Milberg Coleman Bryson Phillips Grossman, PLLC, Kopelowitz Ostrow Ferguson Weiselberg Gilbert, Strauss Borrelli PLLC, and Stranch, Jennings & Garvey PLLC to represent you and other Class Members (“Class Counsel”).

13. Should I get my own lawyer?

You will not be charged for Class Counsel’s services. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

14. How will Class Counsel be paid?

Class Counsel will seek Court approval for attorneys’ fees and litigation costs not to exceed $200,000. These fees and costs will not in any way reduce the consideration being made available to the Settlement Class as described in the Settlement Agreement.

Excluding Yourself from the Settlement

15. How do I opt out of the Settlement?

If you do not want to receive any benefits from the Settlement, and you want to keep your right, if any, to separately sue the Defendant about the legal issues in this case, there are steps that you must take to exclude yourself from the Settlement Class. This is called requesting an exclusion from, or “opting out” of the Settlement Class. The deadline to submit a request for exclusion from the Settlement is November 4, 2025.

To exclude yourself from the Settlement, you must submit a written request for exclusion that includes the following information:

- the name of the Action: Bertha Godbee, Delores Jackson Williams and Phenicia Brown, on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated v. Katz Nannis + Solomon, P.C., Case No. CACE25005192, currently pending in the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit Court for Broward County, Florida;
- your full name;
- current address;
- personal signature; and
- the words “Request for Exclusion” or a clear and similar statement that you do not wish to participate in the Settlement.

Your request for exclusion must be mailed to the Settlement Administrator at the address below, postmarked no later than November 4, 2025.

Katz Nannis & Solomon, P.C. Data Incident Settlement
c/o Settlement Administrator
P.O. Box 25226
Santa Ana, CA 92799

If you exclude yourself, you are telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the Settlement. You will not be eligible to receive any Settlement benefits if you exclude yourself.

You may only exclude yourself— not any other person.

Commenting on or Objecting to the Settlement

16. How do I tell the Court if I like or do not like the Settlement?

If you are a Class Member and do not like a portion or all of the Settlement, you can object to it, if you choose. You can give reasons why you think the Court should not approve it. The Court will consider your views.

For an objection to be considered by the Court, the objection must include:

1. the name of the Action: Bertha Godbee, Delores Jackson Williams and Phenicia Brown, on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated v. Katz Nannis + Solomon, P.C., Case No. CACE25005192;
2. your full name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address (if any);
3. information identifying you as a Class Member, including proof that you are a member of the Settlement Class (e.g., copy of original notice of the Data Incident);
4. a written statement of all grounds for the objection, accompanied by any legal support for the objection you believe is applicable;
5. the identity of any and all counsel representing you in connection with the objection;

6. a statement as to whether you and/or your counsel will appear at the Final Fairness Hearing; and
7. your signature and the signature of your duly authorized attorney or other duly authorized representative, if any (along with documentation setting forth such representation).

To be timely, a written notice of an objection containing the above information must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, with copies served on Class Counsel and counsel for Katz Nannis + Solomon, P.C., no later than November 4, 2025.

Clerk of the Court	Class Counsel	Counsel for Katz Nannis + Solomon, P.C.
Clerk of the Court 17th Judicial Circuit Court for Broward County, Florida 201 SE 6th Street Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301	Jeff Ostrow Kopelowitz Ostrow One West Law Olas Blvd., Suite 500 Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301	Ben Dunlap Freeman Mathis & Gary, LLP 60 State Street, Suite 600 Boston, MA 02109

If you do not comply with the requirements for objecting you will waive and forfeit any and all rights you may have to appear separately and/or to object to the Settlement and will be bound by all the terms of the Settlement and by all proceedings, orders and judgments in the Action.

17. What is the difference between objecting and excluding?

Objecting is telling the Court that you do not like something about the Settlement. You can object to the Settlement only if you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement. Excluding yourself from the Settlement is opting out and stating to the Court that you do not want to be part of the Settlement. If you opt out of the Settlement, you cannot object to it because the Settlement no longer affects you.

The Court's Final Approval Hearing

18. When is the Court's Final Approval Hearing?

The Court will hold a final approval hearing on December 4, 2025, at 9:30 a.m., Eastern Time, in Room 16175 of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit Court, 201 SE 6th Street, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, 33301.

At the final approval hearing, the Court will consider whether to approve the Settlement, how much attorneys' fees and costs to award to Class Counsel for representing the Settlement Class, and whether to award a Service Award to each of the Class Representatives who brought this Action on behalf of the Settlement Class. The Court will also consider any objections to the Settlement.

If you are a Class Member, you or your attorney may ask permission to speak at the hearing at your own cost (See Question 17).

The date and time of this hearing may change without further notice. Please check www.KatzNannisSolomonSettlement.com for updates.

19. Do I have to come to the Final Approval Hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. You may attend at your own expense if you wish. If you file an objection, you do not have to come to the Final Approval Hearing to talk about it. If you file your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay your own lawyer to attend, but such attendance is not necessary for the Court to consider an objection that was filed on time.

If I Do Nothing

20. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you are a Class Member and you do nothing, you will give up the rights described in Question 9, including your right to start a lawsuit, continue a lawsuit, or be part of any other lawsuit against the Defendant and the Released Parties about the legal issues resolved by this Settlement. If you do nothing, you will not receive a benefit from this Settlement.
