BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why is this Notice being provided?

A court authorized this Notice because you have the right to know about the Settlement of this class action lawsuit and about all of your rights and options before the Court decides whether to grant final approval to the Settlement. This Notice explains the lawsuit, the Settlement, your legal rights, what Settlement Class Member Benefits are available, who is eligible for the Settlement Class Member Benefits, and how to get them.

Questions? Go to www.AkuminDataIncidentSettlement.com or call 1-877-657-8732.

The Honorable Michele Towbin Singer of the Circuit Court of the 17th Judicial Circuit in and for Broward County, Florida is overseeing this class action. The lawsuit is known as Gina Letizio, et al. v. Akumin Operating Corp., Case No. CACE-25-011999 (“lawsuit”). The individuals who filed this lawsuit are called the “Plaintiffs” and/or “Class Representatives” and the company sued, Akumin Operating Corp., is called the “Defendant.”

2. What is this lawsuit about?

The Plaintiffs filed this lawsuit against the Defendant on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated involving a Data Incident discovered on October 11, 2023, involving Defendant and allegedly resulting in unauthorized access to or acquisition of Settlement Class Members’ Private Information, as the result of the infiltration of Defendant’s computer systems. Private Information is defined in the first paragraph.

Defendant denies the legal claims and denies any wrongdoing or liability. The Court has not made any determination of any wrongdoing by Defendant, or that any law has been violated. Instead, the Plaintiffs and Defendant have agreed to a settlement to avoid the risk, cost, and time of continuing the lawsuit.

3. Why is there a Settlement?

The Plaintiffs and Defendant do not agree about the legal claims made in this lawsuit. The lawsuit has not gone to trial, and the Court has not decided in favor of the Plaintiffs or Defendant. Instead, the Plaintiffs and Defendant have agreed to settle the lawsuit. The Class Representatives, Defendant, and their lawyers believe the Settlement is best for the Settlement Class because of the Settlement Class Member Benefits available and the risks and uncertainty associated with continuing the lawsuit.

4. Why is this lawsuit a class action?

In a class action, one or more people (called Class Representatives) sue on behalf of all people who have similar legal claims. Together, all these people are called a class or class members, and now that there is a settlement, “Settlement Class Members.” One court resolves the issues for all class members, except for those class members who timely exclude themselves (opt out) from the Settlement class.

WHO IS INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT?

5. How do I know if I am included in the Settlement?

You are included in the Settlement Class if you are a living individual residing in the United States whose Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident.

6. Are there exceptions to being included in the Settlement?

Yes. Excluded from the Settlement Class are: (1) all persons who are directors, officers, and agents of Defendant, or their respective subsidiaries and affiliated companies; (2) governmental entities; and (3) the Judge assigned to the lawsuit, that Judge’s immediate family, and Court staff.

7. What if I am still not sure whether I am part of the Settlement?

The specific rights you are giving up are called "Released Claims."

If you are a member of the Settlement Class and want to keep any right you may have to sue or continue to sue the Released Parties on your own about the legal claims in this lawsuit or the Released Claims, then you must take steps to get out of the Settlement. To exclude yourself from the Settlement, you must mail a written request for exclusion, which includes the following:

1. Your name, address, telephone number, and email address (if any);
2. Your personal physical signature; and
3. A statement that you want to be excluded from the Settlement Class, such as “I hereby request to be excluded from the Settlement Class in the Akumin Data Breach.”

15. If I opt out can I still get anything from the Settlement?

No. If you opt out, you will not be able to receive Settlement Class Member Benefits, and you will not be bound by the Settlement or any judgments in this lawsuit. You can only get Settlement Class Member Benefits if you stay in the Settlement and submit a timely and valid Claim Form.

16. If I do not opt out, can I sue the Defendant for the same thing later?

No. Unless you opt out, you give up any right to sue any of the Defendant and Released Parties for the legal claims this Settlement resolves and Releases, and you will be bound by all the terms of the Settlement, proceedings, orders, and judgments in the lawsuit. You must opt out of this lawsuit to start or continue your own lawsuit or be part of any other lawsuit against the Defendant and Released Parties about the Released Claims in this Settlement. If you have a pending lawsuit, speak to your lawyer in that lawsuit immediately.

Class Counsel will also ask the Court to approve the Service Awards for the Class Representatives of up to $2,500 each for their efforts. Defendant shall pay or cause to be paid any Court-approved attorneys' fees and costs or Service Awards. The Court may award less than these amounts.
