

NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

You may be eligible for a payment from a class action settlement relating to your application for employment with Snowflake Inc.

A Washington State Superior Court authorized this Notice. You are not being sued. This is not a solicitation from an attorney.

- An applicant for employment, John Milito (“Plaintiff” or “Class Representative”), filed a lawsuit against Snowflake Inc. (“Defendant”) on behalf of himself and a class of similarly situated applicants for employment. The lawsuit, John Milito v. Snowflake Inc., No. 25-2-03859-9 SEA (the “Lawsuit”) is pending in King County Superior Court. Plaintiff claimed in the lawsuit that Defendant’s job postings for open positions in Washington did not disclose the wage scale or salary range and/or general description of benefits being offered in violation of Washington law. Defendant disputes Plaintiff’s entitlement to recover on his claims and contends Plaintiff would not have been able to successfully certify a class or otherwise prevail in obtaining the relief he sought.
- The Court has not made any determinations regarding the merits of the Plaintiff’s claims, and it has not decided whether Defendant violated the law.
- The parties to the lawsuit (the “Parties”) have reached a proposed Class Action Settlement. The settlement includes a total payment by Defendant of $4,774,250 (“Common Fund”). The Common Fund will be used to satisfy, as approved by the court: (1) settlement payments to Settlement Class Members (“Class Fund”); (2) service award to the named Plaintiff; (3) attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses; and (4) Settlement Administration costs. On October 17, 2025, the Court issued an order preliminarily approving the settlement and authorizing the Settlement Administrator, Simpluris, Inc. (“Settlement Administrator”), to issue this Notice.
- You are receiving this Notice because Defendant’s records indicate you are eligible to participate in the settlement as a member of the Settlement Class. “Settlement Class Members” include “All individuals who, from January 1, 2023, through the date of preliminary approval, applied for a job opening in the State of Washington with Snowflake Inc., where the job posting did not disclose the wage scale or salary range for the position and where the individual’s application, resume, or other materials (e.g. their LinkedIn profile) did not indicate that the individual resided outside of the United States at the time of the application.”
- The Court still has to decide whether to approve the settlement. No settlement benefits or payments will be provided unless the Court approves the settlement and it becomes final.
- Please read this Notice carefully. Your legal rights are affected regardless of whether you act or do not act. For complete details, please see the Settlement Agreement, the terms of which control, available at www.EPOASettlement-02-07-2025.com.

The deadline to request exclusion from the settlement is January 19, 2026 .
OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT	Write to the Court explaining why you do not agree with the settlement. You must not exclude yourself from the settlement if you wish to object. The deadline to object is January 19, 2026 .

BASIC INFORMATION

1. What is this Notice and why should I read it?

The Court authorized this Notice to inform you about a proposed settlement with Defendant. You have legal rights and options that you may act on before the Court decides whether to approve the proposed settlement. You may be eligible to receive a cash payment as part of the settlement. This Notice explains the lawsuit, the Settlement Agreement, and your legal rights.

Judge David Whedbee of King County Superior Court is overseeing this class action. John Milito is the Plaintiff or Class Representative. The company he sued, Snowflake Inc., is the Defendant.

2. What is a class action lawsuit?

A class action is a lawsuit in which one or more plaintiffs sue on behalf of a group of people who have similar claims. Together, this group is called a “Settlement Class” and consists of “Settlement Class Members.” In a class action, the court resolves the issues for all class members, except those who exclude themselves from the class.

3. What is this lawsuit about?

Plaintiff claims that Defendant violated Washington law, RCW 49.58.110, when it did not disclose the wage scale or salary range being offered on job postings for open positions.

Defendant denies that it is or can be held liable for the claims made in the Lawsuit. More information about the Class Action Complaint in the Lawsuit can be found in the “Important Documents” section of the Settlement Website at www.EPOASettlement-02-07-2025.com.

4. Why is there a settlement?

The Court has not decided whether Plaintiff or Defendant should win this case. Instead, both sides agreed to this settlement. That way, they can avoid the uncertainty, risks, and expense of ongoing litigation, and Settlement Class Members will get compensation now rather than years later—if ever. Plaintiff and Class Counsel, attorneys for the Settlement Class Members, agree the settlement is in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members. The settlement is not an admission of wrongdoing by Defendant.

5. How do I know if I am in the Settlement Class?

Defendant's records show you are part of the Settlement Class because you applied for at least one job opening in Washington with Defendant between January 1, 2023, and October 17, 2025, (the "Settlement Class Period") in response to a job posting that Plaintiff claims did not properly disclose the wage scale or salary range for the position. If you are still not sure whether you are included, you can contact the Settlement Administrator by calling toll-free at 1-833-417-4932, emailing info@EPOASettlement-02-07-2025.com, or visiting the Settlement Website at www.EPOASettlement-02-07-2025.com.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

6. What does the settlement provide?

All Settlement Class Members who do not exclude themselves from the settlement are eligible to receive an equal share of the Class Fund. Settlement payments will be characterized as non-wage damages (1099).

Your estimated payment amount is $824.82.

7. How do I receive a payment?

All Settlement Class Members who do not exclude themselves from the settlement will be eligible to receive a payment. If the Court approves the settlement and you did not exclude yourself, you will receive a settlement payment in the mail.

To ensure you receive your payment, you must confirm the Settlement Administrator has your current mailing address. You must also contact the Settlement Administrator if your address or phone number changes at any time. If the Settlement Administrator does not have your current mailing address, you may not receive your settlement payment. To provide and/or update your current mailing address, you must contact the Settlement Administrator (contact information below):

Email: info@EPOASettlement-02-07-2025.com

8. When will I get my payment?

The hearing to consider the fairness of the settlement is scheduled for February 27, 2026, at 11:00 A.M. If the Court approves the settlement, eligible Settlement Class Members who did not exclude themselves from the settlement will be issued a settlement payment by check or electronically via an online payment service after all appeals and other reviews, if any, are completed. Please be patient. All settlement payments will expire or become void depending on the manner of payment but no later than 180 days after the date of issuance.

9. Will Defendant retaliate against me if I participate in the settlement?

No. Defendant fully supports the settlement and will not retaliate in any way against any Settlement Class Member for participating in the settlement. Your decision to participate, not participate, or object to the settlement will not affect Defendant's treatment of you as an applicant, or current or former employee.

THE ATTORNEYS REPRESENTING YOU

10. Do I have an attorney in this case?

Yes, the Court appointed Timothy Emery, Patrick B. Reddy, and Paul Cipriani of Emery Reddy, PC as Class Counsel to represent the Settlement Class. Their contact information is:

Emery Reddy, PC
600 Stewart Street, Suite 1100
Seattle, WA 98101
Phone: (206) 442-9106

Should I get my own attorney? You don't need to hire your own attorney because Class Counsel are working on your behalf. These attorneys and their firm are experienced in handling similar cases. You will not be charged for these attorneys. You can ask your own attorney to appear in Court for you, at your own cost, if you want someone other than Class Counsel to represent you.

11. How will Class Counsel and the Class Representative be paid?

Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve, and Defendant agrees not to oppose, an award of attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses in the amount of $1,591,416.67 to be paid from the Settlement Fund. Class Counsel will also request a service award for Plaintiff in the amount of $25,000, to be paid from the Settlement Fund. The Court will determine the proper amount of any attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses to award Class Counsel and the proper amount of any service award to Plaintiff. The Court may award less than the amounts requested. Whether the settlement will be finally approved does not depend on whether or how much the Court awards in attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses or service award.

YOUR RIGHTS AND OPTIONS

12. What claims do I give up by participating in this settlement?

If the Court approves the settlement, the Court will enter a final judgment dismissing the Lawsuit "with prejudice." This means that the claims in the Lawsuit will be permanently dismissed. Specifically, Defendant will be "released" from claims as described in Paragraph 19 of the Settlement Agreement, which states upon final approval of this Settlement Agreement, and unless you exclude yourself, you will release:

(i) Defendant and its parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, related companies/corporations and/or partnerships (defined as a company/corporation and/or partnership that are, directly or indirectly, under common control with Defendant or any of its parents and/or affiliates), joint venturers, joint employers, alter-egos, divisions, insurers, reinsurers, insurance policies, and benefit plans, (ii) each of the past, present, and future officers, directors, agents, employees, equity holders (shareholders, holders of membership interests, etc.), representatives, administrators, fiduciaries and attorneys of the entities and plans described in this sentence, and (iii) the predecessors, successors, transferees, and assigns of each of the persons and entities described in this sentence (the "Released Parties") from all claims during the period from January 1, 2023, through the date of preliminary approval, that were or could have been asserted against Defendant by Plaintiff and/or Settlement Class Members based on the facts and claims asserted in Plaintiff's Complaint and/or related to their application for employment with Defendant, including any claims under any state, federal, or local law, to the fullest extent permitted by law (the "Released Class Claims")

By being part of the settlement, Settlement Class Members agree that they cannot sue or seek recovery against Defendant or other Released Parties as described in the Settlement Agreement for any released claims. Participating in the settlement does not, however, waive claims outside the release.

Any potential Settlement Class Member who does not request exclusion by January 19, 2026, will be a Settlement Class Member and will be considered to have accepted the above release and to have waived any and all of the released claims against the Released Parties. Any potential Settlement Class Member who requests exclusion by the applicable deadline is not a Settlement Class Member, will not be subject to the release, and will not receive any payment.

13. What happens if I do nothing?

If you do nothing and the Court approves the settlement, you will still be in the Settlement Class, receive a payment either electronically or in the mail, and be bound by all orders and judgments of the Court, the Settlement Agreement, and its included release. Unless you exclude yourself, you won't be able to file a lawsuit or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant for the claims or legal issues resolved in this settlement and/or described above in Section 12.

14. What happens if I request to be excluded?

If you submit a timely, valid request for exclusion from the settlement, you will not be in the Settlement Class and will not receive a settlement payment. However, you will not release claims against Defendant, and you will not be legally bound by the Court's judgments in this Lawsuit.

15. How do I request to be excluded?

To request to be excluded from the settlement, you must send a letter, postmarked no later than January 19, 2026, to the Settlement Administrator at the following address:

Milito v. Snowflake Inc.
c/o Settlement Administrator
P.O. Box 26170, Santa Ana, CA 92799

To be considered valid, a request for exclusion must include: (i) your full name; (ii) your address; (iii) a statement that you wish to be excluded from the settlement (for example, "I request to be excluded from the class action settlement in Milito v. Snowflake Inc."); and (iv) your (or your attorney's) signature and date signed.

You cannot exclude yourself by phone or email. Each individual who wants to be excluded from the settlement must submit his or her own request for exclusion. Group requests for exclusion are not permitted.

16. If I don't exclude myself, can I sue Defendant for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue Defendant for the claims being resolved by this settlement and/or described in Section 12 even if you do nothing.

17. If I exclude myself, can I get anything from this settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, you will not receive a settlement payment.

18. How do I object to the settlement?

If you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you can object to the settlement if you disagree with any part of it. You can give reasons why you think the Court should deny approval of the settlement by filing an objection. To object, you must file written notice with the Court stating that you object to the settlement in Milito v. Snowflake no later than January 19, 2026. Your objection must be filed with the Court, which you can do by mailing your objection and any supporting documents to King County Superior Court at the following address:

King County Superior Court
516 Third Avenue, Room E-609
Seattle, WA 98104

If you are represented by an attorney, the attorney may file your objection through the Court's e-filing system.

To be valid, your objection must be in writing and include: (i) your full name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address; (ii) the case name and number; (iii) the reasons why you object to the settlement; (iv) the name and address of your attorney, if you have retained one; (v) a statement confirming whether you and/or your attorney intend to personally appear at the Final Approval Hearing; (vi) a list, by case name, court, and docket number, of all other cases in which you (directly or through an attorney) have filed an objection to any proposed class action settlement within the last three years; and (vii) your (or your attorney's) signature and date signed.

In addition to filing your objection with the Court, you must also mail copies of your objection and any supporting documents to both Class Counsel and Defendant's attorneys at the addresses listed below, postmarked no later than January 19, 2026:

Class Counsel	Defendant's Counsel
Timothy W. Emery Patrick B. Reddy Paul Cipriani Emery Reddy, PC 600 Stewart Street, Suite 1100 Seattle, WA 98101	Anthony Todaro DLA Piper LLP 701 Fifth Avenue, Suite 6900 Seattle, WA 98104

19. What's the difference between objecting and excluding myself from the settlement?

Objecting simply means telling the Court that you don't like something about the settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class. Excluding yourself from the Settlement Class is telling the Court that you don't want to be part of the Settlement Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object, because the case no longer affects you.

THE COURT'S FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

20. When and where will the Court hold a hearing on the fairness of the settlement?

The Court will hold the Final Approval Hearing on February 27, 2026, at 11:00 A.M. in King County Superior Court, King County Courthouse, 516 Third Avenue, Room E-201, Seattle, WA 98104.

The purpose of the hearing is for the Court to determine whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class. At the hearing, the Court will hear any objections and arguments concerning the fairness of the proposed settlement, including those related to the amount requested by Class Counsel for attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses and the service award for Plaintiff.

Note: The date and time of the Final Approval Hearing are subject to change by court order. Any changes will be posted at the Settlement Website, www.EPOASettlement-02-07-2025.com, or through the Court's publicly available docket. You should check the Settlement Website to confirm the date and time have not been changed.

21. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have, but you are welcome to attend the hearing at your own expense. If you send an objection, you don't have to come to the hearing to talk about it. As long as your written objection was filed or mailed on time and meets the other criteria described in the settlement, the Court will consider it. You may also hire an attorney to attend on your behalf at your own expense, but you don't have to.

22. May I speak at the hearing?

Yes. If you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Approval Hearing concerning any part of the proposed settlement.
