BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why is there a Notice?

The Court authorized this Long-Form Notice because you have a right to know about the Settlement, and all of your options, before the Court decides whether to give final approval to the Settlement. This Long-Form Notice explains the nature of the Litigation that is the subject of the Settlement, the general terms of the Settlement, and your legal rights and options.

The Judge Deborah L. Boardman of the United States District Court for the District of Maryland is overseeing this case captioned as In re AACOM Data Breach Litigation, Case No. 8:25-cv-01239-TJS. The people who brought the lawsuit are called the Settlement Class Representatives. The company being sued, American Association of Colleges of Osteopathic Medicine, is called AACOM or Defendant.

2. What is the Litigation about?

AACOM is a professional association focused on osteopathic medicine. Defendant also provides centralized services including data collection and analysis and operation of the online application service for students applying to US osteopathic medical schools.

The Litigation alleges that on or about September 26, 2024, an unauthorized individual, or unauthorized individuals, gained access to the email account of an AACOM employee, and subsequently, the names, Social Security Numbers, and medical information of approximately 67,804 individuals.

AACOM denies any wrongdoing whatsoever. No court or other judicial body has made any judgment or other determination that AACOM has done anything wrong.

3. Why is this a class action?

In a class action, one or more people called “Settlement Class Representatives” or “Plaintiffs” sue on behalf of all people who have similar claims. Together, all of these people are called a “Settlement Class,” and the individuals are called “Settlement Class Members.” One court resolves the issues for all Settlement Class Members, except for those who exclude themselves from the Settlement Class.

4. Why is there a Settlement?

The Court has not decided in favor of the Plaintiffs or Defendant. Instead, both sides agreed to the Settlement. The Settlement avoids the cost and risk of a trial and related appeals, while providing benefits to Settlement Class Members. The Settlement Class Representatives appointed to represent the Settlement Class, and the attorneys for the Settlement Class, Settlement Class Counsel, think the Settlement is best for all Settlement Class Members.

WHO IS IN THE SETTLEMENT?

5. How do I know if I am part of the Settlement?

You are affected by the Settlement and potentially a Settlement Class Member if you are an individual residing in the United States whose personally identifying information (PII) or personal health information (PHI) was identified as at issue in the Data Incident discovered by AACOM in September 2024, including all those individuals who received notice of the Data Incident.

Excluded from the Settlement Class are AACOM's officers and directors, legal representatives, and attorneys; members of the judiciary to whom this case is assigned, their families, and members of their staff; all Settlement Class Members who timely and validly request exclusion from the Settlement Class; and any other person found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be guilty under criminal law of initiating, causing, aiding or abetting the criminal activity occurrence of the Data Incident or who pleads nolo contendere to any such charge.

6. What if I am not sure whether I am included in the Settlement?

If you are not sure whether you are included in the Settlement, you may call (833) 630-5371 with questions. You may also write with questions to:

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you do not want to be part of the Settlement, then you must take steps to exclude yourself from the Settlement Class. This is sometimes referred to as “opting out” of the Settlement Class.

Objections must be filed with the Court, and mail a written Objection to Settlement Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel, postmarked by no later than February 2, 2026.

16. What is the difference between objecting and asking to be excluded?

Objecting is telling the Court that you do not like the Settlement or parts of it and why you do not think it should be approved. You can object only if you are a Settlement Class Member. Excluding yourself is telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the Settlement Class and do not want to receive any benefit from the Settlement.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

17. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

Yes. The Court appointed David K. Lietz of Milberg Coleman Bryson Phillips Grossman PLLC, Raina Borrelli of Strauss Borrelli PLLC, Leanna Loginov of Shamis & Gentile, P.A., and Leigh Montgomery of EKSM, LLP, as Settlement Class Counsel to represent the Settlement Class in Settlement negotiations. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

18. How will Settlement Class Counsel be paid?

Settlement Class Counsel shall request the Court to approve an award of attorneys' fees not to exceed one third of the Settlement Fund ($233,333.33). In addition to any attorneys' fees requested, Settlement Class Counsel shall also request reimbursement of the reasonable Costs and Expenses incurred in prosecuting the Litigation. Any such award would compensate Settlement Class Counsel for investigating the facts, litigating the case, and negotiating the Settlement and will be the only payment to them for their efforts in achieving this Settlement and for their risk in undertaking this representation on a wholly contingent basis.

Settlement Class Counsel shall request the Court to approve Service Awards of $5,000 for each of the Settlement Class Representatives, which award is intended to recognize Settlement Class Representatives for their efforts in the Litigation and commitment on behalf of the Settlement Class.

Any Fee Award, Costs, and Expenses, and Service Award payments must be approved by the Court. The Court may award less than the amounts requested.

THE COURT'S FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

19. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the Settlement?

At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. If there are timely and valid Objections, the Court will consider them and will listen to people who have asked to speak at the hearing if such a request has been properly made. The Court will also rule on the Fee Award, Costs, and Expenses and Service Awards payments. After the hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the Settlement. We do not know how long these decisions will take.
