

Notice of Data Event

February 13, 2025 – On or about December 15, 2025, Wee Care Pediatrics, LLC ("Wee Care") identified suspicious activity in its network and immediately began a comprehensive response and investigation with the assistance of third-party specialists. The investigation determined that certain Wee Care information may have been accessed or acquired without authorization on or around December 15, 2025. Upon discovery, Wee Care began working to identify and collect the potentially affected data to perform a comprehensive review. While this review remains ongoing, the types of information believed to be potentially involved varies by individual and may include first and last name and one or more of the following: contact information, date of birth, Social Security number, treatment/diagnosis information, prescription/medication information, dates of service, provider name, medical record number, patient account number, Medicare/Medicaid ID number, and health insurance information.

In response to this incident, we took steps to contain it and to further enhance the security of our network to prevent similar events from occurring in the future. We understand this news may be concerning, and we want to assure you that we are taking this matter seriously. In an abundance of caution, we are offering those who may be affected complimentary credit monitoring and identity protection services at no cost to you. Wee Care has no reason to believe any information has been misused as a result of this matter. For more information or to enroll in these services, you should contact our dedicated assistance line at 1-833-931-5655. Wee Care can also be reached in writing at 2084 N 1700 W, Suite A Layton, UT 84041.

We recommend taking a few simple steps to help protect yourself, including reviewing credit reports/account statements and explanation of benefits forms for suspicious activity and to detect errors. Under U.S. law, consumers are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, TransUnion, Experian, and Equifax. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228.

You have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on a credit file at no cost. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert lasting seven years. As an alternative to a fraud alert, you have the right to place a credit freeze on a credit report. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved without consent. Under federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report.

Should you wish to place a fraud alert or credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Transunion	Experian	Equifax

You can further educate yourself regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps to protect your personal information by contacting the credit reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), or your state Attorney General. The FTC also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. The FTC may be reached at 600 Pennsylvania Ave. NW, Washington, D.C. 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement, the state Attorney General, and the FTC.

Wee Care regrets any concern this matter may cause and remains committed to protecting the privacy and security of patient information.
