

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF KING

NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

You may be eligible for an estimated payment of $2,172.30 from a class action settlement relating to your application for employment with The Seven Motor Corporation. King County Superior Court authorized this Notice. You are not being sued. This is not a solicitation from an attorney.

- Applicants for employment Gregory Petzing, Andrew Blatt, Angelo Locicero, Kyle Mitchell, Larry Orr, Leila Vandiver, Lori Mitchell, Peter Corwin, Rune Shelley, and Shannon Spencer (“Plaintiffs” or “Class Representatives”), filed a lawsuit against The Seven Motor Corporation (“Defendant,” and collectively with Plaintiffs, the “Parties”) on behalf of themselves and a class of similarly situated applicants for employment. The lawsuit, Petzing et al. v. The Seven Motor Corporation, Case No. 24-2-26589-9 KNT (the “Lawsuit”) is currently pending in King County Superior Court before Judge Mark Larrañaga. Plaintiffs claimed in the lawsuit that Defendant’s job postings for open positions in Washington did not disclose the wage scale or salary range being offered. Defendant disputes Plaintiffs’ claims and contends it has not violated any law and Plaintiffs’ claims are without merit.
- The Parties to the Lawsuit have reached a proposed Class Action Settlement. The Proposed Class Action Settlement includes a minimum payment of $1,750,584.47 to a maximum payment by Defendant of $2,665,000.00 (“Maximum Settlement Fund”), depending on how many Class Members submit a claim. On April 21, 2026, the Court issued an order preliminarily approving the settlement and authorizing the Settlement Administrator Simpluris, Inc. (“Settlement Administrator”) to issue this Notice and Claim Form.
- You are receiving this Notice because Defendant’s records indicate you are eligible to participate in the Class Action Settlement as a member of the Settlement Class. “Settlement Class Members” include “Plaintiffs and all individuals who, from January 1, 2023, through the date of preliminary approval, applied for a job opening in the State of Washington with The Seven Motor Corporation, where the job posting did not disclose the wage scale or salary range and/or a general description of benefits for the position.”
- The Court still has to decide whether to approve the settlement. No settlement benefits or payments will be provided unless the Court approves the settlement, and it becomes final.
- Please read this Notice carefully. Your legal rights are affected regardless of whether you act or do not act. For complete details, please see the Settlement Agreement, the terms of which control, available at www.EPOASettlement7Motor.com.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. What is this Notice and why should I read it?

The Court authorized this Notice to inform you about a proposed settlement with Defendant. You have legal rights and options that you may act on before the Court decides whether to approve the proposed settlement. You may be eligible to receive a cash payment as part of the settlement. This Notice explains the Lawsuit, the Class Action Settlement Agreement (“Settlement Agreement”), and your legal rights.

Judge Mark Larrañaga of King County Superior Court is overseeing this class action. The case is titled Petzing et al. v. The Seven Motor Corporation, Case No. 24-2-26589-9 KNT. Gregory Petzing, Andrew Blatt, Angelo Locicero, Kyle Mitchell, Larry Orr, Leila Vandiver, Lori Mitchell, Peter Corwin, Rune Shelley, and Shannon Spencer are the Plaintiffs or Class Representatives. The company they sued, The Seven Motor Corporation, is the Defendant.

2. What is a class action lawsuit?

A class action is a lawsuit in which one or more plaintiffs sue on behalf of a group of people who have similar claims. Together, this group is called a “Settlement Class” and consists of “Settlement Class Members.” In a class action, the court resolves the issues for all class members, except those who exclude themselves from the class.

3. What is this Lawsuit about?

Plaintiffs claim that Defendant violated Washington law, RCW 49.58.110, when it allegedly did not disclose the wage scale or salary range being offered on job postings for open positions.

Defendant denies that it is or can be held liable for the claims made in the Lawsuit. More information about the Lawsuit can be found in the “Important Documents” section of the Settlement Website at www.EPOASettlement7Motor.com.

4. Why is there a settlement?

The Court has not decided whether Plaintiffs or Defendant should win this case. Instead, both sides agreed to this settlement. That way, they can avoid the uncertainty, risks, and expense of ongoing litigation, and Settlement Class Members will get compensation now rather than years later—if ever. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel (attorneys for the Settlement Class Members) agree the settlement is in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members. The settlement is not an admission of wrongdoing by Defendant.

5. How do I know if I am in the Settlement Class?

Defendant’s records show you are part of the Settlement Class because you applied for a job opening in Washington with the Defendant between January 1, 2023, and April 21, 2026, (the “Settlement Class Period”) where the job posting did not disclose the wage scale or salary range and a general description of all of the benefits and other compensation for the position.

If you are still not sure whether you are included, you can contact the Settlement Administrator by calling toll-free at 1-833-386-6564, emailing Info@EPOASettlement7Motor.com, or by visiting the Settlement Website at www.EPOASettlement7Motor.com.

8. When will I get my payment?

Please be patient. All checks will expire and become void 180 days after the date of issuance.

9. Will Defendant retaliate against me if I participate in the settlement?

No. Defendant supports the settlement and will not retaliate in any way against any Settlement Class Member for participating in the settlement. Your decision to participate, not participate, or object to the settlement will not affect any application for employment with Defendant or Defendant's treatment of you as a current or former employee.

THE ATTORNEYS REPRESENTING YOU

10. Do I have an attorney in this Lawsuit?

Yes, the Court appointed Timothy W. Emery, Patrick B. Reddy, and Paul Cipriani of Emery Reddy, PC as Class Counsel to represent the Settlement Class. Their contact information is:

Emery Reddy, PC
600 Stewart Street, Suite 1100
Seattle, WA 98101
Phone: (206) 442-9106

Should I get my own attorney? You don't need to hire your own attorney because Class Counsel are working on your behalf. These attorneys and their firm are experienced in handling similar cases. You will not be charged for these attorneys. You can ask your own attorney to appear in Court for you, at your own cost, if you want someone other than Class Counsel to represent you.

11. How will Class Counsel and the Class Representative be paid?

Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve, and Defendant agrees not to oppose, an award of attorneys' fees in the amount of $786,175, plus costs and expenses in an amount not to exceed $5,000, to be paid from the Settlement Fund. Class Counsel will also request a service award for Plaintiffs in the amount of $9,500 for Plaintiff Gregory Petzing and $5,000 each for Plaintiffs Andrew Blatt, Angelo Locicero, Kyle Mitchell, Larry Orr, Leila Vandiver, Lori Mitchell, Peter Corwin, Rune Shelley, and Shannon Spencer, to be paid from the Settlement Fund. The Court will determine the proper amount of any attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses to award Class Counsel and the proper amount of any service awards to Plaintiffs. The Court may award less than the amounts requested. Whether the settlement will be finally approved does not depend on whether or how much the Court awards in attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses or service awards.

YOUR RIGHTS AND OPTIONS

12. What claims do I give up by participating in this settlement?

If the Court approves the settlement, the Court will enter a final judgment dismissing the Lawsuit "with prejudice." This means that the claims in the Lawsuit will be permanently dismissed. Specifically, Defendant will be "released" from claims as described in Paragraph 19 of the Settlement Agreement, which states that upon final approval of this Settlement Agreement by the Court, each Settlement Class Member who does not submit a valid and timely request for exclusion:

"...will be deemed for all purposes to have released, waived, and forever discharged: (i) Defendant of and from any and all claims that arose during the Settlement Class Period that were asserted against the Released Parties by Plaintiff and members of the Settlement Class in the Complaint (the "Released Class Claims"). Specifically, the Released Class Claims are any claims arising out of or relating to a violation of RCW 49.58.110, and any attendant claims for relief under RCW 49.58.070, such as interest, liquidated damages, exemplary damages, statutory damages, and attorneys' fees and costs."

By being part of the settlement, Settlement Class Members agree that they cannot sue or seek recovery against Defendant as described in the Settlement Agreement for any released claims. Participating in the settlement does not, however, waive claims outside the release.

Any potential Settlement Class Member who does not request exclusion by the applicable deadline will be a Settlement Class Member and will be considered to have accepted the above release and to have waived any and all of the released claims against the Released Parties. Any potential Settlement Class Member who requests exclusion by the applicable deadline is not a Settlement Class Member, will not be subject to the release, and will not receive any payment.

13. What happens if I do nothing?

If you do nothing, you will receive no payment under the settlement. You will still be in the Settlement Class, and, if the Court approves the settlement, you will be bound by all orders and judgments of the Court, the Settlement Agreement, and its included release. You will be deemed to have participated in the settlement and will be subject to the provisions of Section 12 above. Unless you exclude yourself, you won't be able to file a lawsuit or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant for the claims or legal issues resolved in this settlement.

14. What happens if I request to be excluded?

If you submit a timely, valid request for exclusion from the settlement, you will receive no benefits or payment under the settlement. However, you will not be in the Settlement Class, will not release claims against Defendant, and will not be legally bound by the Court's judgments in this Lawsuit.

15. How do I request to be excluded?

To request to be excluded from the settlement, you must send a letter, postmarked no later than July 27, 2026, to the Settlement Administrator at the following address:

Petzing et al. v. The Seven Motor Corporation
c/o Settlement Administrator
P.O. Box 26170
Santa Ana, CA 92799

To be considered valid, a request for exclusion must include: (i) your full name; (ii) your address; (iii) a statement that you wish to be excluded from the settlement (for example, "I request to be excluded from the class action settlement in Petzing et al. v. The Seven Motor Corporation, Case No. 24-2-26589-9 KNT."); and (iv) your (or your attorney's) signature and date signed.

You cannot exclude yourself by phone or email. Each individual who wants to be excluded from the settlement must submit his or her own request for exclusion. Group requests for exclusion are not permitted.

16. If I don't exclude myself, can I sue Defendant for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue Defendant for the claims being resolved by this settlement even if you do not submit a Claim Form.

17. If I exclude myself, can I get anything from this settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, do not submit a Claim Form to ask for a payment.

18. How do I object to the settlement?

If you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you can object to the settlement if you disagree with any part of it. You can give reasons why you think the Court should deny approval of the settlement by filing an objection. To object, you must file written notice with the Court stating that you object to the settlement in Petzing et al. v. The Seven Motor Corporation, Case No. 24-2-26589-9 KNT, no later than July 27, 2026. Your objection must be filed with the Court, which you can do by mailing your objection and any supporting documents to King County Superior Court at the following address:

King County Superior Court
516 Third Avenue, Room C-203
Seattle, WA 98104

If you are represented by an attorney, the attorney may file your objection through the Court's e-filing system.

To be valid, your objection must be in writing and include: (i) your full name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address; (ii) the case name and number; (iii) the reasons why you object to the settlement; (iv) the name and address of your attorney, if you have retained one; (v) a statement confirming whether you and/or your attorney intend to personally appear at the Final Approval Hearing; (vi) a list, by case name, court, and docket number, of all other cases in which you (directly or through an attorney) have filed an objection to any proposed class action settlement within the last three years; (vii) a list, by case name, court, and docket number, of all other cases in which your attorney (on behalf of any person or entity) has filed an objection to any proposed class action settlement within the last three years; and (viii) your (or your attorney's) signature and date signed.

In addition to filing your objection with the Court, you must also mail copies of your objection and any supporting documents to both Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel at the addresses listed below, postmarked no later than July 27, 2026:

Class Counsel	Defendant's Counsel
Timothy W. Emery Patrick B. Reddy Paul Cipriani Emery Reddy, PC 600 Stewart Street, Suite 1100 Seattle, WA 98101	Alexander H. Hill Taylor Lovelace Gordon Rees Scully Mansukhani, LLP 1300 SW Fifth Ave., Suite 2000 Portland, OR 97201

19. What's the difference between objecting and excluding myself from the settlement?

Objecting simply means telling the Court that you don't like something about the settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class. Excluding yourself from the Settlement Class is telling the Court that you don't want to be part of the Settlement Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the case no longer affects you.

THE COURT'S FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

20. When and where will the Court hold a hearing on the fairness of the settlement?

The Court will hold the Final Approval Hearing before Judge Mark Larrañaga on August 28, 2026, at 9:00 A.M. in King County Superior Court, King County Courthouse, 516 Third Avenue, Courtroom E-746, Seattle, WA 98104. To attend remotely via Zoom, you may use the following link:

Zoom Link: <https://kingcounty.zoom.us/j/85651953914>

The purpose of the hearing is for the Court to determine whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class. At the hearing, the Court will hear any objections and arguments concerning the fairness of the proposed settlement, including those related to the amount requested by Class Counsel for attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses and the Plaintiffs' service awards.

Note: The date and time of the Final Approval Hearing are subject to change by court order. Any changes will be posted at the Settlement Website, www.EPOASettlement7Motor.com, or through the Court's publicly available docket. You should check the Settlement Website or the Court's docket to confirm the date and time have not been changed.

21. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have, but you are welcome to attend the hearing at your own expense. If you file an objection, you don't have to come to the hearing to talk about it. As long as your written objection was filed or mailed on time and meets the other criteria described in the settlement, the Court will consider it. You may also hire an attorney to attend on your behalf at your own expense, but you don't have to.

22. May I speak at the hearing?

Yes. If you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Approval Hearing concerning any part of the proposed settlement.
