

NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

You may be eligible for a payment from a class action settlement relating to your application for employment with Lily Transportation, LLC and Lily Transportation Corp.

A Washington State Superior Court authorized this Notice. You are not being sued. This is not a solicitation from an attorney.

- Joshua McClelland and Harold Allen Peery (“Plaintiffs” or “Class Representatives”), filed a lawsuit against Lily Transportation, LLC and Lily Transportation Corp. (“Defendants,” and collectively with Plaintiffs, the “Parties”) on behalf of themselves and a class of similarly situated applicants for employment. The lawsuit, McClelland et al. v. Lily Transportation, LLC et al., Case No. 24-2-01635-34 (the “Lawsuit”) is currently pending in Thurston County Superior Court. Plaintiffs claimed in the lawsuit that Defendants’ job postings for open positions in Washington did not disclose the wage scale or salary range being offered. Defendants dispute Plaintiffs’ claims and contend that they have not violated any law and that Plaintiffs’ claims are without merit.
- The Court has not made any determinations regarding the merits of the Plaintiffs’ claims, and it has not decided whether Defendants violated the law.
- The Parties to the Lawsuit have reached a proposed Class Action Settlement. The Proposed Class Action Settlement includes a maximum payment by Defendants of $456,000 (“Maximum Settlement Fund”). On August 8, 2026, the Court issued an order preliminarily approving the settlement and authorizing the Settlement Administrator Simpluris, Inc. (“Settlement Administrator”) to issue this Notice and Claim Form.
- You are receiving this Notice because Defendants’ records indicate you are eligible to participate in the Class Action Settlement as a member of the Settlement Class. “Settlement Class Members” include “Plaintiffs and all individuals who, from January 1, 2023, through December 10, 2025 (the “Class Period”), applied for a job opening in the State of Washington with Defendants where the job posting did not disclose a wage scale or salary range for the position (collectively, the ‘Settlement Class,’ “Class Members,” or the “Class”).”
- The Court still has to decide whether to approve the settlement. No settlement benefits or payments will be provided unless the Court approves the settlement, and it becomes final.
- Please read this Notice carefully. Your legal rights are affected regardless of whether you act or do not act. For complete details, please see the Settlement Agreement, the terms of which control, available at www.EPOASettlementLT.com.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. What is this Notice and why should I read it?

The Court authorized this Notice to inform you about a proposed settlement with Defendants. You have legal rights and options that you must act on before the Court decides whether to approve the proposed settlement. You may be eligible to receive a cash payment as part of the settlement. This Notice explains the Lawsuit, the Class Action Settlement Agreement (“Settlement Agreement”), and your legal rights.

Judge Chrisine Schaller of Thurston County Superior Court is overseeing this class action. The case is titled McClelland et al. v. Lily Transportation, LLC et al., Case No. 24-2-01635-34.

Joshua McClelland and Harold Allen Peery are the Plaintiffs or Class Representatives. The companies they sued, Lily Transportation, LLC and Lily Transportation Corp. are the Defendants.

2. What is a class action lawsuit?

A class action is a lawsuit in which one or more plaintiffs sue on behalf of a group of people who have similar claims. Together, this group is called a “Settlement Class” and consists of “Settlement Class Members.” In a class action, the court resolves the issues for all class members, except those who exclude themselves from the class.

3. What is this lawsuit about?

Plaintiffs claim that Defendants violated Washington law, RCW 49.58.110, when it allegedly did not disclose the wage scale or salary range being offered on job postings for open positions.

Defendants deny Plaintiffs’ allegations and deny that they are or can be held liable for the claims made in the Lawsuit. More information about the Lawsuit can be found in the “Documents” section of the Settlement Website at www.EPOASettlementLT.com.

4. Why is there a settlement?

The Court has not decided whether Plaintiffs or Defendants should win this case. Instead, both sides agreed to this settlement. That way, they can avoid the uncertainty, risks, and expense of ongoing litigation, and Settlement Class Members will get compensation now rather than years later—if ever. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel, attorneys for the Settlement Class Members, agree the settlement is in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members. The settlement is not an admission of wrongdoing by Defendants.

5. How do I know if I am in the Settlement Class?

Defendants' records show you are part of the Settlement Class because you applied for a job opening in Washington with the Defendants between January 1, 2023, and December 10, 2025 (the "Settlement Class Period"), where the job posting arguably did not disclose the wage scale or salary range for the position.

If you are still not sure whether you are included, you can contact the Settlement Administrator by calling toll-free at 1-888-369-3780, emailing Info@EPOASettlementLT.com, or by visiting the Settlement Website at www.EPOASettlementLT.com.

Please be patient. All checks will expire and become void 120 days after the date of issuance.

9. Will Defendants retaliate against me if I participate in the settlement?

No. Defendants support the settlement and will not retaliate in any way against any Settlement Class Member for participating in the settlement. Your decision to participate, not participate, or object to the settlement will not affect any application for employment with Defendants or Defendants' treatment of you as a prospective, current or former employee.

THE ATTORNEYS REPRESENTING YOU

10. Do I have an attorney in this case?

Yes, the Court appointed Ackermann & Tilajef, P.C. as Class Counsel to represent the Settlement Class. Their contact information is:

Ackermann & Tilajef, P.C.
2602 North Proctor Street, Suite 205
Tacoma, Washington 98406

Should I get my own attorney? You don't need to hire your own attorney because Class Counsel are working on your behalf. These attorneys and their firm are experienced in handling similar cases. You will not be charged for these attorneys. You can ask your own attorney to appear in Court for you, at your own cost, if you want someone other than Class Counsel to represent you.

11. How will Class Counsel and the Class Representative be paid?

Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve, and Defendants agree not to oppose, an award of attorneys' fees in the amount of $134,520, plus costs and expenses in an amount not to exceed $15,000, to be paid from the Settlement Fund. Class Counsel will also request service awards for Plaintiffs in the amount of $15,000 ($7,500 to each Plaintiff), to be paid from the Settlement Fund. The Court will determine the proper amount of any attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses to award Class Counsel and the proper amount of any service awards to Plaintiffs. The Court may award less than the amounts requested. Whether the settlement will be finally approved does not depend on whether or how much the Court awards in attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses or service awards.

YOUR RIGHTS AND OPTIONS

12. What claims do I give up by participating in this settlement?

If the Court approves the settlement, the Court will enter a final judgment dismissing the Lawsuit "with prejudice." This means that the claims in the Lawsuit will be permanently dismissed. Specifically, Defendants will be "released" from claims as described the Settlement Agreement, which states that upon final approval of this Settlement Agreement by the Court, each Settlement Class Member who does not submit a valid and timely request for exclusion:

... will release, waive, and forever discharge Defendants, together with their direct and indirect parents, subsidiaries, and affiliates, and each of their respective past and present directors, officers, agents, shareholders, members, managers, employees, attorneys, insurers, reinsurers, successors, and assigns, as well as any third parties involved in the development, publication, promotion, and/or hosting of Defendants' job postings ("Released Parties"), from claims asserted in the operative Complaint or claims that could have been asserted based on the facts alleged in the operative Complaint. The release will include, but not be limited to, any claims based on Defendants' failure to comply with the job posting/pay transparency requirements of the Washington Equal Pay and Opportunities Act, including, but not limited to, any alleged liabilities arising out of or relating to a failure to include the wage scale or salary range, and/or a general description of all of the benefits and other compensation to be offered to a hired applicant in any job postings. The Released Claims specifically include, but are not limited to, any claims arising out of or relating to a violation of Chapter 49.58.110 RCW including but not limited to interest, liquidated damages, exemplary damages, statutory damages, minimum statutory damages, and attorneys' fees and costs relating to any of the foregoing.

By being part of the settlement, Settlement Class Members agree that they cannot sue or seek recovery against Defendants or other Released Parties as described in the Settlement Agreement for any released claims. Participating in the settlement does not, however, waive claims outside the release.

Any potential Settlement Class Member who does not request exclusion by the applicable deadline will be a Settlement Class Member and will be considered to have accepted the above release and to have waived any and all of the released claims against the Released Parties. Any potential Settlement Class Member who requests exclusion by the applicable deadline is not a Settlement Class Member, will not be subject to the release, and will not receive any payment.

13. What happens if I do nothing?

If you do nothing, you will receive no payment under the settlement. You will still be in the Settlement Class, and, if the Court approves the settlement, you will be bound by all orders and judgments of the Court, the Settlement Agreement, and its included release. Unless you exclude yourself, you won't be able to file a lawsuit or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendants for the claims or legal issues resolved in this settlement.

14. What happens if I request to be excluded?

If you submit a timely, valid request for exclusion from the settlement, you will receive no benefits or payment under the settlement. However, you will not be in the Settlement Class, will not release claims against Defendants, and will not be legally bound by the Court's judgments in this Lawsuit.

15. How do I request to be excluded?

To request to be excluded from the settlement, you must send a letter, postmarked no later than November 23, 2026, to the Settlement Administrator at the following address:

Joshua McClelland, et al. v. Lily Transportation, LLC, et al.
c/o Settlement Administrator
P.O. Box 26170
Santa Ana, CA 92799

To be considered valid, a request for exclusion must include: (i) your full name; (ii) your address; (iii) a statement that you wish to be excluded from the settlement (for example, "I request to be excluded from the class action settlement in McClelland et al. v. Lily Transportation, LLC et al., Case No. 24-2-01635-34"); and (iv) your (or your attorney's) signature and date signed.

You cannot exclude yourself by phone or email. Each individual who wants to be excluded from the settlement must submit his or her own request for exclusion. Group requests for exclusion are not permitted.

16. If I don't exclude myself, can I sue Defendants for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue Defendants for the claims being resolved by this settlement even if you do nothing.

17. If I exclude myself, can I get anything from this settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, do not submit a Claim Form to ask for a payment.

18. How do I object to the settlement?

If you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you can object to the settlement if you disagree with any part of it. You can give reasons why you think the Court should deny approval of the settlement by filing an objection. To object, you must file written notice with the Court stating that you object to the settlement in McClelland et al. v. Lily Transportation, LLC et al., Case No. 24-2-01635-34, no later than November 23, 2026. Your objection must be filed with the Court, which you can do by mailing your objection and any supporting documents to Thurston County Superior Court at the following address:

Thurston County Superior Court
2000 Lakeridge Drive SW, Bldg 2
Olympia, Washington 98502

If you are represented by an attorney, the attorney may be able to file your objection through the Court's e-filing system.

To be valid, your objection must be in writing and include: (i) your full name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address; (ii) the case name and number; (iii) the reasons why you object to the settlement; (iv) the name and address of your attorney, if you have retained one; (v) a statement confirming whether you and/or your attorney intend to personally appear at the Final Approval Hearing; and (vi) your (or your attorney's) signature and date signed.

In addition to filing your objection with the Court, you must also mail copies of your objection and any supporting documents to both Class Counsel and Defendants' attorneys at the addresses listed below, postmarked no later than November 23, 2026:

Class Counsel	Defendants' Counsel
Craig J. Ackermann Avi Kreitenberg Brian Denlinger Ackermann & Tilajef, P.C. 2602 North Proctor Street, Suite 205 Tacoma, Washington 98406	Kelly Drew Rooksby Brittney C. Adams Gordon Rees Scully Mansukhani, LLP 546 N. Jefferson, Suite 302 Spokane, WA 99201

19. What's the difference between objecting and excluding myself from the settlement?

Objecting simply means telling the Court that you don't like something about the settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class. Excluding yourself from the Settlement Class is telling the Court that you don't want to be part of the Settlement Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the case no longer affects you.

THE COURT'S FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

20. When and where will the Court hold a hearing on the fairness of the settlement?

The Court will hold the Final Approval Hearing before Judge Christine Schaller on February 26, 2027, at 9 A.M. in Thurston County Superior Court, 2000 Lakeridge Drive SW, Bldg 2, Olympia, Washington 98502. [If you wish to attend the hearing remotely, you may do so by using the following link: <https://zoom.us/join>

Meeting ID: 929 7685 9522

Passcode: 921043

The purpose of the hearing is for the Court to determine whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class. At the hearing, the Court will hear any objections and arguments concerning the fairness of the proposed settlement, including those related to the amount requested by Class Counsel for attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses and the service awards for Plaintiffs.

Note: The date and time of the Final Approval Hearing are subject to change by court order. Any changes will be posted at the Settlement Website, www.EPOASettlementLT.com, or through the Court's publicly available docket. You should check the Settlement Website to confirm the date and time have not been changed.

21. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have, but you are welcome to attend the hearing at your own expense. If you send an objection, you don't have to come to the hearing to talk about it. As long as your written objection was filed or mailed on time and meets the other criteria described in the settlement, the Court will consider it. You may also hire an attorney to attend on your behalf at your own expense, but you don't have to.

22. May I speak at the hearing?

Yes. If you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Approval Hearing concerning any part of the proposed settlement.
