

America's Black Forum Episode Synopsis

Episode Number: 25-06
Week of July 14, 2025

This week on America's Black Forum:

Jarrod Whitaker – The Real Estate Godfather of Harlem

A former hip hop artist back in the late 90's...is now a successful real estate guru. His name is Jarrod Whitaker and these days he's on a mission to help young people in the black community create a stable financial future. He says the key to success is to become financially literate and learn how to build a real estate portfolio.

Supermodel Sharaun Brown

At an early age, Sharaun Brown, turned laundry day into fashion week, strutting through her mother's basement runway- modeling dirty laundry -with confidence and big imagination. That catwalk became the dress rehearsal to her one day walking the stage on America's Next Top Model - in addition to becoming an International Supermodel!

Black Girls Golf

In Business, many deals are sealed on the golf course – mostly among men. Tiffany Fitzgerald thought it was unfair that black businesswomen were being shut out of the deal-making process simply because they didn't play golf. So, she founded "Black Girls Golf" with the intention of getting more women out on the links to learn a new game and learn how to compete with the guys in business.
