

Episode Synopses for September 2025

Feed Date	Episode #	Synopsis
09.4.25	#PA-239	Host Ernie Anastos talks to people if they could have lived in a different era in history; panel discussion about the purpose and benefits of volunteering; plus, positive news stories from across America, including the oldest American to donate an organ.
09.11.25	#PA-240	Host Ernie Anastos talks to people about their favorite motto to live by; panel discussion about the ability to create and build something special in life; plus, positive news stories from across America, including a doctor who saved a child's life and the child later returned the same favor.
09.18.25	#PA-241	Host Ernie Anastos talks to people about the best decision they've made in life; panel discussion about the importance of privacy and how to protect it; plus, positive news stories from across America, including a Texas home builder who created amusement park for children with special needs.
09.25.25	#PA-242	Host Ernie Anastos talks to people about what they wish they knew earlier in life; panel discussion about the importance of good mental health; plus, positive news stories from across America, including philanthropist Michael Bloomberg donates $600-million to black medical colleges and universities.
10.02.25	#PA-243	Host Ernie Anastos talks to people about how they handle giving out their personal information; panel discussion about the value of freedom and how to preserve it; plus, positive news stories from across America, including how LEGOS are helping children and adults deal with trauma and anxiety.