

America's Black Forum Episode Synopsis

Episode Number: 25-15
Week of September 20, 2025

This week on America's Black Forum:

OneUnited Bank and Esusu Partnership

Teri Williams knows a thing or two about owning real estate and building wealth. She's the President and Chief Operating Officer of OneUnited, the nation's largest black owned bank. She's on a mission to help people in the Black community build wealth through education and by developing a long-term strategy that anyone can follow.

Black Women's Policy Center

Rochelle Jackson founded the Black Women's Policy Center after experiencing her own challenges as a single mother and survivor of domestic violence. Rochelle is working to transform systems and create equitable opportunities for Black women to thrive.

Artist Rahmaan Statik

Moving beyond the traditional perception of graffiti as "tagging" or vandalism, Rahmaan Statik elevates his craft to street art. He skillfully brings his talent to the world, adorning urban landscapes with colorful, artful images that both captivate the eye and deliver a compelling message.
