OUR GOVERNMENT

City Administration

The City of Rockville operates under a mayor and city council form of government, with city administration overseeing daily operations, municipal services, and implementation of council policies. City Hall serves as the central hub for resident services, permits, licensing, and administrative functions.

Supporting the city's operations are Public Works and Maintenance, which manage streets, utilities, parks, and municipal facilities and Planning and Zoning, which guides land use, development and long-range community planning.

Public Safety

Public safety services in Rockville are provided through the Rockville Volunteer Fire Department and the Stearns County Sheriff's Department. The Rockville Volunteer Fire Department is a dedicated team of trained volunteers who provide fire suppression, emergency response, rescue assistance, and public safety education. Law enforcement services are provided by the Stearns County Sheriff's Department, which delivers patrol services, crime prevention, and emergency response throughout Rockville.

OUR COMMUNITY

Rockville is a growing community in southeastern Stearns County, Minnesota, located approximately 10 minutes west of St. Cloud near the intersection of Interstate 94 and State Highway 23.

The community is known for its scenic setting, including four lakes within the city limits, parks, trails, and a strong quality of life.

Rockville's roots date back to the mid-1850s when settlers established the community among the area's distinctive granite outcroppings. The city was platted in 1856 and named for the granite rock formations found along nearby streams and waterways. Granite quarrying played an important role in the community's early development and remains an important part of Rockville's identity today. In 2002, the City of Rockville expanded through the merger of the former City of Pleasant Lake and Rockville Township, creating the community that exists today.
