Access Guide

Gender Revel Gala 2026

Easy Read

Saturday 28 November 2026
6pm to 11pm

The Substation
1 Market Street, Newport

Version 2. Thursday 12 November 2026.

About this guide

This guide is in Easy Read.
It uses easy words and pictures.

The Gender Revel Gala is a big party.
It celebrates trans people.
It is the last big night of Trans Month.

This guide tells you what the Gala will be like.
It can help you plan your night.

You can ask someone to help you read this guide.

Need this guide in a different way?
Email gala@tgv.org.au

When and where

The Gala is on Saturday 28 November 2026.
It is from 6pm to 11pm.

It is at The Substation.
1 Market Street, Newport.

You must be 18 or older to come.
Bring your ID.

You need a ticket.
Buy tickets on Humanitix:
events.humanitix.com/gender-revel-gala-2026

Is money a problem?
Email gala@tgv.org.au
We do not want cost to stop you coming.

Getting there

Train: Newport station is very close.
A crew member will meet you and show you the way.
The station ramps are steep.

Bus: Buses 471, 947 and 432 stop near The Substation.
The path has no steps.

Car: There is parking next to the building.
There are accessible parking spaces.

Taxi or rideshare: The driver can stop at the front.

Bike: There are bike racks near the building.

Arriving

Walk along the side of the building, near the big tree.
There is a ramp and stairs up to the front door.

At the front door, we check your ticket and ID.
You can get a pronoun sticker.

There will be photographers.
Don't want your photo taken?
Ask for a sticker or red wristband.

You can leave your coat or bag in the cloakroom.

Free masks, earplugs and hand sanitiser are at the front door.

Inside The Substation

Level 2	Euphoria Studio: make-up, flowers, photos and change rooms
Level 1	Main space: awards, shows, bar and dancing
Ground floor	Way in, Quieter Space and Trancestor Shrine

There is a lift to every level.
It is on the left when you come in.

You can also use the stairs.

Ground floor

The foyer is where you come in.

The Quieter Space is a calm room.
You can rest there any time.
It has comfy chairs, soft lights and fidget toys.

Peer Navigators are there to help you.
They wear bright pink vests.
You can talk to them.

The Trancestor Shrine remembers trans people who came before us.
You can leave a flower or a message there.

Level 1: Main space

The main space is on Level 1.
The awards, shows and dancing are here.

The Trans Visibility Awards celebrate trans people in our community.

The bar is here.
There are drinks with and without alcohol.
Water is free.

Some seats are kept for people who need them.
They are away from the dance floor.
You do not need to book.

There is a room next to the bar with TV screens.
They show news about the election.

Level 2: Euphoria Studio

Make flowers to wear or take home at the Flower Bar.

Get your make-up done at the Glam Station.
Then get your photo taken.
The camera flashes at the Photo Wall.

Get dressed in the change rooms.
They are open from 5pm to 6pm.
Doors open for everyone at 6pm.

What happens when

These times might change on the night.

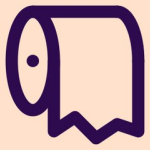

5pm	Change rooms open on Level 2. They are for people who need to get changed.
6pm	Doors open for everyone. Music and dinner.
7:30pm	Kitty Obsidian says hello. A Bunurong person welcomes us to their land. This is called a Welcome to Country.
8pm	The Naarm Ballroom Scene dance show. Loud music and cheering.
8:15pm	Trans Visibility Awards part 1. Speeches and cheering.

What happens when

These times might change on the night.

8:45pm	DJ music. A good time for a break.
9:15pm	Trans Visibility Awards part 2.
9:45pm	Kitty Obsidian show. Loud music and a whip crack.
9:55pm	Dancing. This is the loudest time. The dance floor gets crowded.
11pm	The Gala ends. The lights come on.

Toilets, food and water

All toilets are for everyone.
There are toilets on every level.

Accessible toilets are on the ground floor and Level 2.

There is a baby change table in the ground floor accessible toilet.

Dinner is on a table. You take the food you want.
There is vegan, vegetarian, halal and gluten-free food.

Free water is at the bar on Level 1.

Getting help

Staff and volunteers wear a trans flag lanyard with a purple CREW card.
Ask them for help.

Peer Navigators wear bright pink vests.
They are near the Quieter Space.

Security is there all night.
They are trans-friendly.

Hurt or sick?
Tell someone with a trans flag lanyard.
They will get help.

Auslan interpreters will sign the shows and the awards.

Staying healthy

COVID is still around.
Free masks are at the front door.
Please wear one if you can.

Air purifiers clean the air in every room.

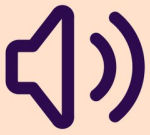

Doors stay open to let air in.

Hand sanitiser is in the foyer.

Things you might hear

The Gala will be loud.
The rooms echo.

Loud music.
People talking, cheering and clapping.
A whip crack at about 9:45pm.

Free earplugs are at the front door.
Bring your own if you have them.

Need a break?
Go to the Quieter Space on the ground floor.

Things you might see

Bright stage lights.
Some rooms are dark.

There are no flashing lights.
Only the camera at the Photo Wall flashes.
There is no smoke machine.

Lots of people talking and dancing.

Big TV screens.

Things you might feel and smell

The dance floor gets crowded.
People might bump into you.

Some rooms are warmer or cooler than others.

The make-up, flowers and change rooms are hands-on.
People may touch you to help.

You might smell perfume, hairspray, flowers and food.

You might smell smoke from cigarettes and vapes.
The smoking area is outside the front doors, on the left.

Contact us

Questions? Email gala@tgv.org.au
We are happy to help you plan your night.

Call The Substation on (03) 9391 1110.

Read the full guide at transmonth.org.au/gala-access-guide

We are on Aboriginal land.
This land was never given up.
We pay respect to Elders past and present.