Policy on Corporate Social Responsibility

I. BACKGROUND

Corporate Social Responsibility is a company's sense of responsibility towards the communityand environment in which it operates. It is the continuing commitment by business to behaveethically and contribute to economic development of the society at large and building capacity or sustainable livelihoods.

The Company believes in conducting its business responsibly, fairly and in a most transparentment. It continually seeks ways to bring about an overall positive impact on the society andenvironment where it operates and as a part of its social objectives.

CSR covers the entire process by which an organization approaches, defines and develops its relationships with stakeholders for the common good, and demonstrates its commitment in this regard by adoption of appropriate strategies and projects. Thus CSR is not charity or meredonations but a way of going beyond business as usual, creating shared value and contributing to social an environmental good.

In order to promote corporate responsibility towards the society, the Companies Act 2013 envisages that the Companies meeting the criteria stated therein shall spend at least 2% of their average net profits during previous three financial years by taking up projects with social objectives.

II. OBJECTIVE

The main objective of this CSR Policy is to lay down guidelines to make CSR a key businessprocess for sustainable development of the society and the environment in which it operates. Itaims in enhancing welfare measures of the society based on the immediate and long termsocial and environmental consequences of the Company's activities in India.

The scope of the Policy has been kept as wide as possible, so as to allow the Company torespond to different situations and challenges appropriately and flexibly, subject to theactivities enumerated in Schedule VII to the Companies Act, 2013. However, no contributionwill be made for any activities undertaken outside India.

CSR Vision: Improve Quality of life through integrated and sustainable development
