

OUR HISTORY

Born in the United States, Toro Kitchen and Bar offers a locally crafted Spanish culinary experience. The owner's family hails from the beautiful countryside of Valle De Ruesga in Santander, located in the north of Spain. Gerardo, the owner, grew up between Mexico and Texas. While traveling throughout Europe, he visited his family in Spain and found himself captivated by its traditions, cuisine, and, above all, the wine. The name "Toro" was inspired by Gerardo's experience running with the bulls in Pamplona. In this daring encounter, Gerardo was confronted eye to eye a 1500-pound bull named "Caramelo."

OUR MOTTO IS SIMPLE: STRAIGHTFORWARD QUALITY.

It is a type of dry-cured aged ham, The curing process is regarded as a sacred art, and Spain even has a governing body called "Denominación de origen" ensuring all proper procedures and quality standards are met. Jamón Iberico and Jamón Iberico de Bellota come from Iberians pigs also referred to as "Pata negra" or black hoof. Bellota Iberian pigs are free roaming and fed only natural bellotas or acorns. It later grew in popularity and different regions began adding various local ingredients and techniques. there is no right or wrong way to make a paella, the ultimate point is to bring people together to relax, laugh, drink, and enjoy good food.
