

I Can Be a Good Friend!

Sharing

I am learning to be a good friend.

There are a lot of ways I can be a good friend.

play together

say hello

be kind

Can you think of other ways that you can be a good friend?

One way to be a good friend is by sharing.

Sharing means to give some of what I have to someone else.

There are a lot of things that I can share.

toys and games

snacks and treats

What other things could you share?

Sometimes sharing is easy, especially when I have a lot of something.

When is sharing easy for you?

Sometimes sharing is hard because I want to keep everything for myself.

When is sharing hard for you?

When sharing is hard, I can ask for help from a grown up.

The grown up may tell me that I have to share.

When I need to share but I don't really want to,
I can...

Find something else to do.

Relax, take deep breaths and count to 10.

Be patient and wait my turn.

Share and play together with a friend.

When I share, it makes my friends feel good.

When I share, I feel good because I'm being a good friend!

Conclusions: Think About It!

Why is it important to share?

It's the right thing to do.

Makes my friends feel good.

I want to be a good friend.

Conclusions: Think About It!

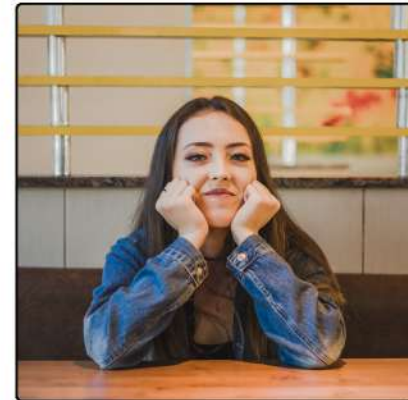

What can you do when sharing is hard?

Find something else to do.

Take deep breaths
and count to 10.

Be patient and wait
for my turn.

Thanks for reading with us!

For additional books, recipes, AAC and Special Education products, please visit our website & AACchicks TPT Store!

© 2025 Dynamic Therapy Associates, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

Purchase grants a single-use license to the original buyer for personal or classroom use only. Commercial use, reproduction, redistribution, uploading to the internet, copying, altering, or sharing this material in any form is prohibited without written permission.