Text snippets for embedding the Ginto web map on third-party websites

Last updated: 18 August 2026

1 How to use these text snippets

The Ginto web map can generally be published without any text. However, if you would like to include text alongside the map, please use the following text blocks. Tip: Images relating to Ginto, as well as the Ginto logo, can be downloaded from https://about.ginto.guide/downloads if required.

2 Text Snippets in Indirect Speech

2.1 Short Version

Ginto finds, records and shares detailed, structured information on the accessibility of venues, leisure activities and transport services. 'Ginto' is an abbreviation of the English phrase 'get into' and means 'to enter'.

This map shows all venues recorded by Ginto within the 'xx' area, which can be filtered – from hairdressers and physiotherapy practices to restaurants.

2.2 Long Version

Find and share information on accessibility

People with disabilities need objective and standardised information on the accessibility of venues in order to plan a trip, a visit to a healthcare facility or an evening meal at a restaurant independently.

Ginto therefore finds, records and shares detailed, structured information on the accessibility of venues, leisure activities and transport services. 'Ginto' is an abbreviation of the English phrase 'get into' and means 'to enter'.

On this map, all venues recorded by Ginto within the 'xx' perimeter are visible and can be filtered, ranging from hairdressing salons and physiotherapy practices to restaurants.

1. Select a needs profile: In the view above, a standardised needs profile can be selected. On this basis, Ginto assesses accessibility on a case-by-case basis.
2. Check accessibility: Ginto can be used to find information about the accessibility of cafés, restaurants or car parks.
    - You can search for the name of a venue or by category in the search box.
    - A list of suggestions for a targeted search is displayed below the search box. If you select one of these, it will be added to your search.
    - The map shows which locations match the search.
    - To view full details of a location's accessibility, you can either click on a location in the list on the left or on a pin on the map on the right.

3. Share information: Search results can also be shared with others by selecting and copying the URL. Detailed information about individual locations can also be easily shared in this way.

Looking for information on accessibility outside of 'xx'? Find out more about accessibility at www.ginto.guide. Tip: Ginto is also available as an app: you can download the Ginto app for free and personalise it to suit your own needs.

3 Text Snippets in Direct Speech

3.1 Short Version

Plan your next outing with the Ginto web map. 'Ginto' is an abbreviation of the English phrase 'get into' and means 'to enter'.

On this Ginto web map, you'll find information on the accessibility of cafés, restaurants, museums and more within the 'xx' perimeter.

3.2 Long Version

Find and share information on accessibility

On this Ginto web map, you'll find information on the accessibility of cafés, restaurants, museums and more within the 'xx' area. Using a needs profile, Ginto assesses the accessibility of each location individually and shows you what aids are available and what barriers you might encounter. Plan your next outing now with the Ginto web map. 'Ginto' is an abbreviation of the English phrase 'get into' and means 'to enter'.

1. Select a needs profile: Select a standardised needs profile from the view above. Ginto will then assess accessibility on an individual basis based on this.
2. Check accessibility: With Ginto, you can find information about the accessibility of cafés, restaurants and car parks.
    - In the search box, you can search for the name of a venue or by category.
    - Suggestions for your search are displayed below the search box. If you select one of these, it will be added to your search.
    - On the map, you can see which venues match your search.
    - Click either on a venue in the list on the left or on a pin on the map on the right, and you'll see all the information about a venue's accessibility.
3. Share information: You can also share your search results with others by selecting and copying the URL. You can also easily share detailed information about individual locations in this way.

Are you looking for information on accessibility outside of 'xx'? Then visit www.ginto.guide. Tip: Ginto is also available as an app: you can download the Ginto app for free and personalise it to suit your own needs.