

GOLDILOCK SECURE PARTNER PROGRAM

Empowering partners. Securing the future.

goldilock.com

At a time when cyber threats are growing more sophisticated and relentless, organisations across all industries, from Critical National Infrastructure (CNI) to Legal, Transport, Healthcare, Finance, and beyond, urgently require a new breed of cybersecurity solutions.

Traditional software-based defences are no longer sufficient against advanced ransomware, insider threats, and state-sponsored actors targeting the very lifelines of our economies and societies. Traditional cybersecurity measures often fall short in addressing the threats that target not only their traditional IT infrastructure but also the expanding attack surfaces presented by interconnected IoT (Internet of Things) devices, critical OT (Operational Technology) and industrial control systems (ICS).

Goldilock Security is at the forefront of this new security paradigm with Goldilock FireBreak — a revolutionary hardware-enforced cybersecurity solution. FireBreak physically disconnects critical digital assets, operational technology (OT), IT systems, and backups from any network or internet access when not in use, making them completely invisible and inaccessible to attackers. By eliminating remote attack surfaces rather than simply trying to defend them, FireBreak empowers organisations to implement true Zero Trust at the physical layer, achieving a level of security unattainable with software alone.

Recognising the explosive demand for real, tangible cyber resilience, the Goldilock Security Reseller Partner Programme is designed to build a best-in-class channel ecosystem. Our strategy is simple: we work with authorised distributors, who in turn empower a select group of Authorised and Expert Reseller Partners to bring FireBreak solutions to the organisations that need them most.

Meticulously crafted to foster strong, collaborative relationships, partner enablement, and shared go-to-market strategies, Goldilock and our partners are poised to capitalize on one of the fastest-growing opportunities in cybersecurity today: delivering hardware-enforced cyber-physical protection in a world where breaches are no longer a matter of 'if,' but 'when.' By joining the Goldilock Security Partner Programme, you will gain access to cutting-edge technology, comprehensive support, and attractive incentives, positioning your business as a trusted advisor in this critical and expanding market.

A strategic two-tier path to mutual success

Our Partner Programme operates on a clear and efficient two-tier go-to-market model, fostering seamless collaboration and transparency among all stakeholders. This structure ensures that every participant, from distributors to resellers, is fully integrated into a cohesive network, working together towards shared goals and mutual success.

Tier 1: Distributors

Goldilock Security focuses on developing, marketing, and selling its groundbreaking FireBreak solutions and related services directly to strategically selected Authorised Distributors. These distributors are chosen for their established market presence, robust logistical capabilities, and commitment to providing value-added services within their territories. Goldilock Security collaborates closely with these distributors, equipping them with in-depth product knowledge, sales enablement tools, and marketing resources to effectively represent and promote our unique security offerings.

- Authorised distributors stock, promote, and provide first-line support to resellers
- Act as an aggregation point for deal registration, seed units, marketing funding, and partner enablement
- Work closely with Goldilock to drive regional demand-generation activities and partner recruitment

Tier 2: Resellers

Reseller Partners, the cornerstone of our extended reach, purchase Goldilock Security's FireBreak solutions and associated services through designated Authorised Distributors. This two-tier structure allows resellers to leverage the distributor's local market expertise, inventory management, and first-line support, while benefiting from Goldilock Security's comprehensive partner programme. We offer two distinct reseller tiers – Authorised and Expert – each designed to reward commitment, expertise, and a proactive approach to bringing Goldilock's unparalleled physical cybersecurity to a diverse range of customers across various industries. This tiered approach ensures that partners are recognised and rewarded based on their investment in training, sales performance, and dedication to the Goldilock Security value proposition.

- Resellers purchase Goldilock solutions exclusively from authorised distributors
- Deliver Goldilock solutions directly to end customers with value-added services such as consultancy, deployment, and managed services
- Benefit from training, deal protection, sales support, and access to marketing development funds (MDF)
- Resellers are classified as either Authorised or Expert partners, based on criteria and performance

Goldilock Security is proud to support a thriving ecosystem of dedicated resellers. Our two-tier partner model — Authorised Reseller and Expert Reseller — is designed to recognise and reward commitment, capability, and joint success in bringing the innovative FireBreak solution to market.
