

TITAN Aesthetic Announces Ownership Transition to Medical Aesthetics Leader Carrie Galpin

Des Moines, Iowa. September 10, 2026 – TITAN Aesthetic, a training and consulting firm dedicated exclusively to medical aesthetics, today announced that Founder and CEO Mary Beth Hagen has entered into an agreement to transition ownership of the company to Carrie Galpin. The ownership transfer is anticipated to be completed on September 30, and Hagen will remain involved as a strategic advisor.

Titan Aesthetic connects aesthetic practices with qualified, vetted medical aesthetic injectors and practice talent while also supporting clinician training and development as well as retention and compensation strategies. The company supports both aesthetic providers seeking new roles and aesthetic practices aiming to build high-performing, patient-focused teams.

Hagen founded TITAN in 2017 and originally focused on screening for aesthetic aptitudes in candidates as well as provider placement. During Hagen’s tenure, TITAN has worked with more than 5,000 aesthetic professionals and practices and added resources such as professional development, compensation coaching, retention strategies, the TITAN Membership program and the Learners & Legacies meeting for newer aesthetic providers. Hagen is now excited to welcome Galpin to her new role as CEO of TITAN.

“Carrie brings the operational discipline, clinical perspective, and people-centered leadership needed to guide TITAN into its next phase,” said Hagen. “I’m proud of the impact TITAN has made in helping aesthetic practices build strong teams, and I can’t think of a more capable leader to carry that mission forward as the specialty continues to embrace wellness and regenerative medicine as part of the aesthetic journey.”

Carrie Galpin is a seasoned commercial leader in medical aesthetics and pharmaceutical space. “Clinical education and advancing patient outcomes have always been central to my work,” said Galpin. “Throughout my career leading injector education initiatives, I have seen the direct connection between exceptional injectors, strong practice teams, and sustainable practice growth. I’m excited to lead TITAN by expanding education,

TITAN Aesthetic

Medical Aesthetics Recruiting | Screening | Coaching | Consulting
development, and retention strategies that help practices differentiate themselves and deliver optimal outcomes with consistent, high-performing teams.”

###

About TITAN Aesthetic

TITAN Aesthetic is a specialized screening, coaching, consulting, and recruiting agency dedicated to supporting aesthetic providers and practices in medical aesthetics. Founded in 2017, TITAN helps aesthetic professionals navigate career development, injector placement, peer education, and practice growth while helping employers identify qualified candidates with the clinical aptitude, communication skills, and team approach needed to support strong patient outcomes. Through its proprietary screening process, coaching programs, education network, and consulting services, TITAN supports great aesthetic providers in great practices for great patient outcomes.

Mary Beth Hagen, Founder and CEO of TITAN Aesthetic, has more than three decades of experience in medical aesthetics, including commercial and leadership roles with Medicis, now Galderma, and Allergan. Her background spans sales, sales management, BOTOX® Cosmetic product management, and national accounts. That experience led her to launch TITAN in 2017 to help reputable aesthetic practices acquire, develop and retain qualified injectors and practice professionals nationwide.

Media Contact: TITAN Aesthetic | info@titanaesthetic.com