3.9 Disconnection and Reconnection

- (k) the Consumer owes Wyse money for Services or for a security deposit. Wyse shall provide the Consumer a reasonable opportunity to provide the security deposit, consistent with its security deposit policy, as set out in these Conditions of Service.

3.9.2 Disconnection and Reconnection Process and Charges

Immediately following the due date of an Invoice, steps will be taken to collect the full amount of the Invoice from the Consumer. If the Invoice is still unpaid three (3) days after the due date a late penalty will be applied to your account. A reminder noticed will be issued on the 4th day after the due date if payment has not been received. Seven days after receipt of the reminder notice a disconnection notice will be issued. Fourteen (14) calendar days after a disconnection notice (and other applicable public safety notices or information bulletins issued by public safety authorities to Wyse, including but not limited to the Fire Safety Notice of the Office of the Fire Marshal) has been given to the Consumer, the Services and/or supply of electricity may be disconnected and not restored until payment arrangements satisfactory to Wyse and in accordance to regulation have been made, including costs of reconnection. Wyse will attempt to contact the Consumer by phone or e-mail one last time to arrange payment, a minimum of 48 hours prior to any disconnection of service. Such discontinuance of the Services and/or supply of electricity does not relieve the Consumer of the liability for arrears or other applicable charges for the balance of the term of the contract, nor shall Wyse be liable for any damage to the Consumer's premises resulting from such discontinuance of Services and/or supply of electricity.

3.10 Reconnection Fees

3.10.1 Wyse will not charge reconnection fees for Eligible Low-Income Consumers.

3.11 Winter Disconnection

3.11.1 Residential

Wyse will suspend the disconnection of services for non-payment during the Winter Period as defined in the Glossary of Terms.

Wyse will continue to disconnect retail and commercial services for non-payment during the Winter Period in accordance with section 3.9.2 of these Conditions of Service.

3.12 Disconnection without Notice

Wyse may disconnect a Consumer without notice in accordance with a court order or for emergency, safety or system reliability reasons.

3.12.1 Notification for Interruptions

- (a) Although it is Wyse's policy to minimize inconvenience to Consumers, it is necessary to occasionally interrupt a Consumer's supply of electricity to allow work on the Sub-metering System or electrical systems. Wyse endeavors to provide such Consumers with reasonable notice of planned power interruptions. However, interruption times may change due to inclement weather or other unforeseen circumstances. Wyse shall not be liable in any manner to such Consumers for failure to provide such notice of planned power interruptions or for any change to the schedule for planned power interruptions.

- (b) During an emergency, Wyse may interrupt supply of electricity to a unit without notice in response to a shortage of supply of electricity or to effect repairs on Wyse's Sub-metering System or to conduct work of an emergency nature involving the possibility of injury to persons or damage to property or equipment.

3.12.2 Notification to Consumers on Life Support

- (a) Consumers who require an uninterrupted source of power for life support equipment must provide their own equipment for these purposes. Consumers with life support system are encouraged to inform Wyse of their medical needs and their available backup power. These Consumers are responsible for ensuring that the information they provide Wyse is accurate and up to date.
- (b) With planned interruptions, the same procedure as prescribed in section 3.12.1 will be observed. For those unplanned power interruptions that extend beyond two hours and the time expected to restore power is longer than what was indicated by Consumers (registered on life support) as their available backup power, Wyse will endeavor to contact these Consumers but will not be liable in any manner to the Consumers for failure to do so.

3.12.3 Emergency Interruptions for Safety

Wyse will endeavour to notify Consumers prior to interrupting the supply of electricity. However, if an unsafe or hazardous condition is found to exist, or if the use of electricity by apparatus, appliances, or other equipment is found to be unsafe or potentially damaging to Wyse or the public, the supply of electricity may be interrupted without notice.

3.13 Metering

Wyse will supply, install and maintain the Sub-Metering System. The location of the Sub-Metering System shall be in compliance with Wyse's specifications and as agreed to with the Building owner.

3.14 Meter Dispute & Testing

3.14.1 Metering inaccuracy is an extremely rare occurrence. Most billing inquiries can be resolved between the Consumer and Wyse without resorting to the meter dispute test.

3.14.2 Either Wyse or the Consumer may request the service of Measurement Canada to resolve a dispute. If the Consumer initiates the dispute, Wyse will charge the Consumer a meter dispute fee if the meter is found to be accurate and Measurement Canada rules in favor of Wyse.

3.14.3 Meter errors resulting in a dispute request by the Consumer or Wyse will be dealt with according to Measurement Canada Standards.

3.15 Security Deposits

Whenever required by Wyse including, but not limited to, as a condition of providing or continuing to provide Services, Consumers shall provide and maintain security in an amount that Wyse deems necessary and reasonable.

A deposit is required to provide security on the account in the event of non-payment and until which time the Consumer has established a good credit rating as per Wyse's deposit refund policy.

Wyse will not discriminate among Consumers with similar risk profiles or risk related factors except where expressly permitted under the OEB's Unit-Sub-Metering Code.

3.15.1 Wyse may require a security deposit from a Consumer unless the Consumer has a good payment history of 1 year in the case of residential Consumer or 3 years in the case of a non-residential consumer.

3.15.2 The security deposit may be waived based on the following criteria:

- (a) The Consumer has a good payment history based on the most recent Consumer history with some portion in the most recent 24 months, during which time the Consumer:
 - had no more than one (1) notice of disconnection;
 - AND
 - had no more than one (1) payment returned for insufficient funds;
 - AND
 - had no Disconnect/Collect Trip.
- (b) For the purposes of providing proof of good payment history, the Consumer may provide a letter from an electricity or gas distributor in Canada confirming good payment history. The letter must contain information consistent with the good payment criteria described in this document.
- (c) Consumer chooses to go on Pre-Authorized Payment

3.15.3 Despite section 3.13.2 (c) Wyse may require a security deposit from the Consumer if within 12 months of enrollment in a pre-authorized payment plan,

- (a) the Consumer terminates the plan;
- (b) the Consumer receives more than one disconnection notice from the unit sub-meter provider;
- (c) more than one payment by the Consumer has been returned for insufficient funds; or
- (d) a disconnect/collect trip has occurred.

3.15.4 Wyse will advise a residential Consumer that the security deposit requirement will be waived for an eligible low-income consumer. The Consumer will be required to verify his/her low-income eligibility by confirmation from a Social Service Agency or Government Agency. Where Wyse is advised by a LEAP Intake Agency that the agency is assessing the Consumer for eligibility as an eligible low-income Consumer, the due date for payment of the security deposit shall be extended for at least 21 days pending the eligibility decision of the LEAP Intake Agency.

- 3.15.5 Wyse will provide advance public notice of any changes to its security deposit policy set out in these Conditions of Service. Notice shall be, at a minimum, provided to each Consumer by means of a note on and/or included with the Consumer's Invoice.
- 3.15.6 If any of the preceding events occur due to an error by Wyse or another sub-metering provider, the Consumer's good payment history shall not be affected.
- 3.15.7 The maximum amount of a security deposit which Wyse may require a Consumer to pay shall be calculated in the following manner:
- (a) by multiplying Wyse's billing cycle factor by the Consumer's estimated Invoice based on the Consumer's average monthly load with Wyse during the most recent 12 consecutive months within the past 2 years, and
 - (b) where relevant usage information is not available for the Consumer for 12 consecutive months within the past 2 years, or where Wyse does not have systems capable of making the above calculation, the Consumer's average monthly load shall be based on a reasonable estimate made by Wyse.
- 3.15.8 The billing cycle factor is:
- (a) 2.5 if the Consumer is billed monthly;
- 3.15.9 Where a Consumer has a payment history which discloses more than one disconnection notice in a relevant 12-month period, Wyse may use that Consumer's highest actual or estimated monthly load for the most recent 12 consecutive months within the past 2 years for the purposes of making the calculation of the maximum amount of security deposit.
- 3.15.10 The form of payment of a security deposit for a Consumer shall be cash or cheque at the discretion of the Consumer, or such other form as is acceptable to Wyse.
- 3.15.11 The form of payment of a security deposit for a non-residential Consumer shall be cash, cheque or an automatically renewing, irrevocable letter of credit from a bank as defined in the Bank Act, S.C. 1991, c. 46 at the discretion of the consumer.
- 3.15.12 Wyse shall permit the Consumer to provide a security deposit in equal installments paid over six months. A Consumer may, in its discretion, choose to pay the security deposit over a shorter time period. Where a residential Consumer has paid a security deposit in installments, the Consumer shall not be entitled to request a review of the security deposit until 12 months after the first installment was paid.
- 3.15.13 Interest shall accrue monthly on security deposits made by way of cash or cheque commencing on receipt of the total security deposit required by Wyse.

The interest rate shall be at the prime lending rate as published on the Bank of Canada website less 2 percent, updated quarterly.

The interest accrued shall be paid out at least once every 12 months or on return or application of the security deposit or closure of the account, whichever comes first, and may be paid by crediting the account of the Consumer or otherwise.

- 3.15.14 Wyse shall review every Consumer's security deposit at least once in a calendar year to determine whether the entire amount of the security deposit is to be returned to the Consumer as the Consumer is now in a position that it would be exempt from paying a security deposit had it not already paid a security deposit, or whether the amount of the security deposit is to be adjusted based on a re-calculation of the maximum amount of the security deposit.
- 3.15.15 A Consumer may, no earlier than 12 months after the payment of a security deposit or the making of a prior demand for a review, demand in writing that Wyse undertake a review to determine whether the entire amount of the security deposit is to be returned to the Consumer, as the Consumer is now in a position that it would be exempt from paying a security deposit, had it not already paid a security deposit, or whether the amount of the security deposit is to be adjusted based on a re-calculation of the maximum amount of the security deposit.
- 3.15.16 Where Wyse determines in conducting a review that some or all of the security deposit is to be returned to the Consumer, Wyse shall promptly return this amount with interest to the Consumer by crediting the Consumer's account.
- 3.15.17 If after review it is determined that the security deposit needs to be adjusted upward, the amount required to bring the security deposit up to date will be added to the next regular Invoice and is payable by the due date of that Invoice. As with all outstanding balances payment arrangements that are satisfactory to Wyse may be made. Wyse shall permit the Consumer to pay the adjustment amount in equal installments paid over a period of at least 6 months upon request.
- 3.15.18 Wyse shall promptly return any security deposit received from the Consumer upon closure of the Consumer's account, subject to Wyse's right to use the security deposit to set off other amounts owing by the Consumer to Wyse. The security deposit shall be returned within six weeks of the closure of an account.
- 3.15.19 Where all or part of a security deposit has been paid by a third party on behalf of a Consumer, Wyse shall return the amount of the security deposit paid by the third party, including interest, where applicable, to the third party. This obligation shall apply where and to the extent that:
- (a) the third party paid all or part (as applicable) of the security deposit directly to Wyse;

- (b) the third party has requested, at the time the security deposit was paid or within a reasonable time thereafter, that Wyse return all or part (as applicable) of the security deposit to them rather than to the Consumer; and
- (c) there is not then any amount overdue for payment by the Consumer that Wyse is permitted to off set using the security deposit.

3.15.20 Wyse will not issue a disconnection notice to a residential Consumer for non-payment unless Wyse has first applied any security deposit held on the account against any amounts owing at that time and the security deposit was insufficient to cover the total amount owing. Wyse may request that the Consumer repay the amount of the security deposit that was applied.

3.16 Invoices and Billing

3.16.1 Wyse shall render Invoices to Consumers on a monthly basis.

3.16.2 The Consumer may dispute charges shown on the Consumer's Invoice or other matters by contacting and advising Wyse of the reason for the dispute in accordance with its dispute resolution process set out herein.

3.16.3 First and final bills will have the service charge prorated based on a ratio between number of days occupied by the Consumer and a standard thirty (30) day month.

3.16.4 Billing Errors

Where a Consumer has been over billed, the maximum period of over billing for which the Consumer is entitled to be repaid is two (2) years.

Where a Consumer has been under billed, the maximum period of under billing for which Wyse is entitled to be paid is two (2) years.

If a Consumer has been over-billed by an amount equal to or greater than the Consumer's average bill, the Consumer has the option of receiving a cheque or a credit on their next bill.

If a Consumer has been over-billed and the amount is less than the Consumer's average bill, the Consumer will receive a credit on their next bill. If the Consumer has outstanding arrears, Wyse may apply the over-billed amount to the arrears first and may credit or repay the balance to the Consumer.

If Wyse issues a bill to an eligible low-income Consumer for an under-billed amount, the Consumer will be notified about the options of paying the amount. In this case the under-billed amount can be paid over a period up to two (2) years. At any time the Consumer may request to reduce the payment period.

If a Consumer is under-billed and is not responsible for the error, the Consumer is allowed to pay the under-billed amount in equal installments over the same amount of time as they were under-billed for up to a maximum of two years. (e.g. if a Consumer has been under-billed for 6 months, they will have six (6) months to pay the under-billed amount).

When a Consumer is responsible for the under-billed amount, Wyse may require payment of the full amount on the next bill or on a separate bill.

These rules do not apply when Wyse has under-billed or over-billed a Consumer but issues a corrected bill within sixteen (16) days of the date the incorrect bill was issued.

Wyse will charge interest on under-billed amounts where the Consumer was responsible for the error, whether by way of tampering, willful damage, unauthorized utility use, or other unlawful actions.

- (g) A residential Consumer may be eligible to enter into an arrears payment agreement with Wyse as prescribed by regulation. The Consumer can contact Wyse for further details.

3.18 Payment Terms and Late Payment Charges Detailed

3.18.1 Wyse fixed fees and charges are pro-rated based on a 30-day billing cycle. Pro-ration of charges are calculated as follows. Standard 30-day charge divided by 30 and multiplied by the number of billing days. Example: for a 31-day month the calculation will be as follows: $$ \text{Fixed fee} / 30 \times 31$.

3.18.2 Payment Terms are net 20 days.

3.18.3 Payment is expected to be received no later than day 23 to allow for mailing and bank processing of electronic payments.

3.18.4 Late Payment Charges.

- (a) The minimum payment period (before a late payment penalty can be applied) will be at least twenty-three (23) days from the date the bill was issued to the Consumer.
- (b) In the event payment is not received by day 23, interest charges of 1.5% will begin on outstanding amounts. On day 27 a reminder notice will be processed and mailed to the Consumer.
- (c) In the event payment has still not been received 7 days after the first reminder notice a disconnection notice will be issued to the Consumer indicating if full payment of the amount owing, in accordance to regulation, is not made that electricity may be disconnected commencing 14 days after the disconnection notice. The disconnection window will be for 14 days from the commencement of the disconnection period.

3.18.5 Where a partial payment has been made by the Consumer on or before the due date, the interest charge will apply only to the amount of the Invoice outstanding at the due date.

3.18.6 Outstanding bills are subject to the collection process and may ultimately lead to the Services and/or the supply of electricity being discontinued. Services and/or the supply of electricity will be restored once satisfactory payment has been made.

Discontinuance of service does not relieve the Consumer of the liability for arrears. Wyse shall not be liable for any damage on the Consumer's premises resulting from such discontinuance of the Services and/or the supply of electricity. A reconnection charge will apply where the Service and/or the supply of electricity has been disconnected due to non-payment.

3.18.7 The Consumer will be required to pay additional charges for the processing of non-sufficient fund payments.

3.18.8 Consumers will be required to pay special charges, on request, which may arise from a variety of conditions such as

- (a) a change of occupancy charge will apply to all accounts taken over by a new Consumer;
- (b) it is sometimes necessary, for the Consumer's convenience, for a Wyse employee to visit a Consumer's premises to collect payment for an account. There will be a charge for this service;
- (c) a Consumer disconnected for non-payment shall be required to pay a reconnection fee; and
- (d) a charge for issuing a collection notice.

3.19 Consumer Information

3.19.1 Wyse shall collect, use and disclose Consumer information in accordance with Wyse's Privacy Policy (available on Wyse's website, www.wysemeter.com), applicable laws and pursuant to the consent of the Consumer set out in the Utility Services Contract.

WYSE STANDARD SERVICE CHARGES

Wyse has adopted the standard charges as defined by The Ontario Energy Board for the following services.

	Description	Fee
Account Set-Up Fee	This is the cost for establishing a new utility account with Wyse. This cost also includes reading the meter on your move in day and reading the meter when you move out.	$50.00 for Residential Consumers.

The security deposit can be waived if the resident chooses to sign up for the pre-authorized payment plan. For any other utility submetered by Wyse, each Consumer shall be charged $130.00 per utility as a security deposit. Security deposits shall not constitute payment of an outstanding account, in whole or in part, and shall only be applied to amounts owing on a Wyse account when the account is closed before Wyse initiates any disconnections due to non-payment or otherwise in accordance with Applicable Laws. Security deposits will be refunded when the account is closed or when the Consumer has demonstrated a good payment history with Wyse for a minimum period of 1 year for residential Consumers or 3 years for non-residential Consumers. Interest shall accrue monthly on security deposits commencing upon receipt of the total deposit required. The interest rate on such security deposits shall be at the average over the period of the prime lending rate set by the Bank of Canada less 2 percent. The interest accrued shall be paid out (including by application to the Consumer's account) at least every 12 months, upon a refund or application of the security deposit or upon closure of the Consumer's account, whichever comes first. Wyse, however, will refund the fee and make necessary adjustments to the Consumer's Invoice if the meter is found to be inaccurate. Either Wyse or the Consumer may request the involvement of Measurement Canada to resolve a meter dispute. If the Consumer initiates the dispute, Wyse will charge the Consumer a meter dispute fee.
