Nestled in the Valley of Forgue, deep in the East Highland hills, is The GlenDronach, one of the oldest licensed distilleries in Scotland. The GlenDronach was founded in 1826 by James Allardice, an early pioneer of sherry cask maturation. The GlenDronach has been dedicated to mastering the art of sherry cask maturation since 1826; marrying robust Highland spirit to Spanish oak. Our founder, James Allardice, was an early pioneer of sherry cask maturation. Sherry was a popular import into Scotland from Spain in the 19th century and in these casks, Allardice discovered the perfect partner to mature his robust Highland spirit.

Indulge in Johnnie Walker Gold Label with good company and savour every moment. This award-winning Scotch features vibrant whiskies selected for their sweet, honeyed qualities, making it a delightful companion that also stands out on its own. We've honed our craft with precision, respecting the elements that shape a Scotch whisky's final flavour and character, including the types of grains and yeasts used, the shape of the still, and the maturation time. Whether enjoyed as a highball or on its own with a dash of water, Johnnie Walker Gold Label Reserve offers a luxuriously smooth and creamy taste, with layers of fruit, vanilla, spice, and smokiness.
