Forest School

This weeks forest school was all about emotions.

The children had a look in the mirror and used the stones to make their face or looked on the card to choose a face with an emotion to make.

New Class Names!

We are currently exploring new class names for next year. We welcome your families' ideas.

It would be great if the names linked to our values of voice, choice and opportunity.

The class names could be linked to: inspirational figures, famous landmarks, local history...the possibilities are endless!

We are looking at around 11 different names!

Please email you ideas to katinfo@brigshawtrust.com

Thank you!
