

One Senior Care Announces Expanded Leadership Team

Erie, PA – Today, One Senior Care – a leading rural provider of the Program of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly – announced that Keith Myers and Pete Baker will join the organization as Chief Operating Officer (COO) and Chief Human Resources Officer (CHRO), respectively. These key additions to the leadership team will help further One Senior Care’s mission to keep participants safe, healthy, at home, and connected.

Keith Myers, joining One Senior Care as Chief Operating Officer, brings a strong professional background in scaling high-growth healthcare organizations. Beyond his operational experience, Myers’ experience as a clinician will guide the organization in advancing successful and innovative strategies to achieve strong clinical outcomes for participants.

Pete Baker joins the organization as Chief Human Resources Officer after leading human resources at worldwide companies, including Procter & Gamble, Maersk, Westpac, and Amcor, where he focused on culture and leadership development. In his role at One Senior Care, Baker will lead efforts to expand and strengthen the One Senior Care workforce.

Through its affiliations with LIFE-NWPA in Pennsylvania, Mountain View PACE in Kentucky, and Buckeye PACE in Ohio, One Senior Care has successfully expanded the PACE model across rural and Appalachian communities. PACE allows participants to live at home, with access to personalized medical treatment, transportation, and social support at the PACE Day Center.

“One Senior Care is thrilled to welcome Keith and Pete to our leadership team,” said Craig Worland, CEO of One Senior Care. “Keith’s experience as both a healthcare operator and clinician, combined with Pete’s proven ability to build strong teams and develop talent, will strengthen our organization as we bring high-quality PACE services to even more communities.”
