

Content

Greeting from Helmut von Struve, CEO Siemens Middle East .....	7
Preface to the new edition .....	11
Abstract.....	13
The ranking for Gulf universities .....	15
Methodology and weightings .....	15
The scope of the THE ranking for the Gulf states .....	16
The top golf universities according to THE rankings, HCR Awards, and number of citations .....	17
Focus on industry .....	20
The role of industry/the private sector in local education.....	22
Approaches of German companies in international comparison .....	25
The changing academic and industrial landscape.....	27
Gulf universities as training grounds for the labor market .....	29
The history of the educational revolution from the “House of Wisdom” .....	31
A. The universities of the eight Gulf states .....	33
1. Iraq – the sources of Arab science in the “House of Wisdom” .....	34
2. Kuwait – a leader in stem cell research.....	54
3. Kingdom of Saudi Arabia on the path to world-class research.....	58
4. Higher education in Bahrain – pioneering work in medicine .....	82
5. Qatar and the Sidra Tree Story .....	87
6. United Arab Emirates – the “epicenter” of the education revolution .....	97
6.1 The beginnings in Al-Ain .....	104
6.2 Dubai. Mars and STEM subjects .....	113
6.3 Abu Dhabi. From Kant to AI.....	118
6.4 Sharjah. A significant name as an educational hub .....	133
7. Oman – the „blue gold water“ and the sources of knowledge .....	147
8. Iran – the reform role of universities in the land of Avicenna .....	154
B. German universities in the countries of the Middle East .....	167
1. German University in Cairo (GUC) .....	168
2. German University of Technology in Oman, GUTech .....	171
3. German-Jordanian University (GJU) .....	174
4. Turkish-German University (TDU).....	176
5. Orient Institute Beirut (OIB) .....	179
Conclusion.....	182
Notes.....	185
About the authors .....	192